

A great sign appeared in heaven:
 a woman clothed with her feet, and a crown

the sun, the moon beneath of twelve stars on her head.

For Vocations

“Get hold of yourselves! It is I. Do not be afraid!”

Uncertainty can sometimes bring fear along with God's call to consecrated life or priesthood. If the Lord is truly calling you, what is needed is trust. If you are discerning your vocation, call Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-774-8451 or at cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

IN THIS YEAR OF MARY
Mary, The Virgin Mother of Grace
OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS

This is the most ancient and solemn of Mary's feasts. After a most blessed death Mary was triumphantly assumed into heaven with soul and body and was crowned Queen of Heaven by her own Son. Unite your joy and gratitude with that of the angels and saints in heaven as well as that of the Church upon earth, for it is your Heavenly Mother's Coronation Day. How well did she deserve this immortal crown! She crushed the serpent's head. She offered herself and her beloved Son unto death for the redemption of mankind. She triumphed over the world and the devil. Pray that Mary may reign as Queen in your heart and in the hearts of all people. Pray to her for the grace of final perseverance in good and a happy death.

"Only one thing is needful. Mary has chose the best part, and it will not be taken away from her" (Luke 10, 42).

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS

For all those called to priesthood and consecrated life, that they will have no fear in responding to Jesus as He calls them to trust in Him and His choice of them, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"He said, "Come", Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." - Matthew 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you respond immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has in mind for you.

Craig's Corner

A Note from our Director of Music

One of my other loves in the world, aside from the Church and my job as music director for our basilica, is the weather. I actually have three undergraduate degrees: a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies from Youngstown State, a Bachelor of Music in Organ Performance also from YSU, and a Bachelor of Science in Applied Meteorology from Mississippi State University. I am about to begin my second year of distance learning coursework at Mississippi State for my Masters of Geosciences in Meteorology as well.

Why do I bring this up? This weekend we notice a major theme in the readings to be two opposite facets of our God: calm and peace versus power and dominion. A blessing (or a curse) of the weather in our valley is that we experience not only the calm and peaceful days, but also the powerful and awe-inspiring storms. In the first reading today we hear of Elijah waiting for God in the strong winds, the fires, and the earthquakes; he instead hears God in a tiny whispering sound. In the Gospel, Jesus' disciples become afraid in a large storm with strong winds and high waves at sea and for a time, lack faith in trusting in His calming hand. Once they experience both the fury and the calm, they proclaim Him as truly being the Son of God.

Our music this weekend gives us glimpses at both sides of these accounts: the peace and the power. The prelude, Jean Langlais' Song of Peace, our offertory hymn On Eagle's Wings and Draw Near at communion, show the more peaceful, calming, and caring side of our God. Conversely, the opening hymn All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name (Hymn Tune: Coronation) and its associated postlude focus on God's kingship and power that we acclaim, as did the apostles today in the Gospel, that Jesus is truly the Son of God.

*I have this inner voice or desire calling me towards the Catholic Faith. What do I do?

*My spouse is Catholic. I would like to have a better

How can they receive the Eucharist or be Confirmed?

*I went through RCIA and would love to be part of guiding others through the process how can I help?

Thanks to all who came out to our 1st Altar Server gathering at OLMC ~ St. Anthony i

We had 13 boys and 4 parents who helped and played.
Not sure where all the girls were? A few played Bocce and plenty of food was had by all.

The big attraction was the "Corn Hole" game. Even when it started to rain at the end of our time the boards were picked up and placed under the pavilion so the game could continue! Since the Bocce courts could not be moved under the pavilion the game could not be continued.

A special thanks to Nick Capone for organizing and leading the event.

See everyone at the next gathering.

Addition to the Catechetical Center of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica

Above is the picture of the modest addition to our center which is now under construction. The addition is located on the south center of the hall and will give space for an extra 48 seating. The addition will give to the hall some extra natural lighting and access to a dedicated outdoor space. The architect is Strollo, the contractor is Brock, electrician is Tri-Area and the landscaper is Patrone. The benefactor is the late Doctor Mario Santangelo, given to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica from his estate. I am most grateful. May he rest in the peace of the Lord. Though the addition is a modest addition, it is my hope that the project will promote a sense of family and community for our members and all who come to visit with us. May the Lord and his loving Mother bless the fruit of our labor.

Thank you . The Very Reverend Msgr. Michael J. Cariglio, Jr. Pastor/Rector.
