STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“So the last will be first and the first last”-
Matthew 20:16

You’ve heard the say “It’s NOT where you start, but how you finish.” This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others not hoard them for our own use. Our gratitude and generosity helps us live “God-centered” lives and not “self-centered” lives.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S FOCUS: ADMITTING WRONGS, SAYING "YES"

One of the hardest things for us to do is to admit we've been wrong. But when we do, we often open our lives to much affirmation.

Have you ever known someone who always was in trouble. You'd swear that someday they would end up in jail. Years later you run into them and learn by surprise that they are now a police officer! I learned that day to have faith in those I'd written off, as God has faith in us. God's ways are not your ways, but they certainly can become our ways.

Ezekiel 18: 25-28

Psalms 25: 6a

Phillipians 2: 1-11 or 2: 1-5

Matthew 21: 28-32

God, our mercy, you sent Jesus to teach us the ways of humility and truth. May his example encourage us to empty ourselves of what is not your way so that we might become as merciful to others as you are to us.

Our comfortable Msgr. John DeMarinis Hall is now open for the events of our dear members of St. Anthony Church. You will need to pick your own professional caterer or bring your own food and drink. Call the rectory to check the master calendar for making the reservation. The modest rental for the use of the hall will benefit the church. You will make arrangements with the church for clean up and security.

HE PRAYED THE ROSARY

Over a hundred years ago a university student found himself seated in a train by the side of a person who seemed to be a well-to-do peasant. He was praying the rosary and moving the beads in his fingers. "Sir, do you still believe in such outdated things?" Yes, I do, Do you not? Asked the man. The student burst out into a laughter and said, "I do not believe in such silly things. Take my advice. Throw the rosary out through this window, and learn what science has to say about it". "Science? I do not understand this science? Perhaps you can explain it to me", the man said humbly with some tears in his eyes.' The student saw that the man was deeply moved. So to avoid further hurting the feelings of the man, he said: "Please give me your address and I will send you some literature to help you on the matter." the man fumbled in the inside pocket of his coat and gave the boy his visiting card. On glancing at the card, the student, bowed his head in shame and became silent. On the card read: Louis Pasteur, Director of the Institute of Scientific Research, Paris."
