STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:20

The Scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear-it's the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of a modern day Pharisee.

Last weekend, the Diocese of Youngstown sponsored the Church Overseas Combined Collection for ministries to needy people. Thank you for your participation in this important collection. If you did not have the opportunity to respond last week, there is still time to contribute to this combined collection.

Parenting Pointer by Susan Vogt:

Black History Month. The past few years have been tumultuous for race relations. Few people think of themselves as racist, but do you or your children have friends of a different race? It may feel awkward but find a way to meet someone who looks different than you this week. Perhaps go to a church, store, or neighborhood where people who look different from you gather.

Craig's Corner
A Note from our Director of Music

Many of the hymns we sing in our Liturgical celebrations have roots from the Reformation, when Martin Luther wanted to give church-goers poetry-like texts sung in their vernacular language. Luther led the way for German chorales that JS Bach and many classical composers would begin composing organ preludes for, in addition to his own melodies. Texts came from metrical psalms, various Scripture passages, texts written to evoke religious emotions, and the goal for these texts and melodies was to empower the congregation into a new connection with worship. Catholic composers and publishers added their own twists in the 1800-1900s, writing hymns based on the Eucharist and in honor of the Virgin Mary. After Vatican II, Catholic churches drew from the many sources of Protestant hymns that had been ongoing for centuries before.

The hymn titles are different from hymn tunes. Many tunes with a specific ordered poetic meter, can be adapted to different texts. For example, the hymn tune "Hyfrydol" can be used to the melodies of "Alleluia! Sing to Jesus" and "Love Divine All Loves Excelling." Names of hymn tunes come from people (the composer themselves, or who they dedicate the hymn to), places the hymns were written, historical events, and others. In our missalette, the hymn tune is often found underneath the hymn's title. The poetic meter is sometimes provided as well. I'll explain this part next week!

Marriage Moments by Susan Vogt:

Valentine's Day. Jesus continually urges us to go beyond the letter of the law. He interprets "You shall not kill" (Mt.5) as "Don't be angry." "You shall not commit adultery" might be interpreted as "Show your spouse that they come first and you love him/her wholeheartedly. Go the extra mile for your beloved today. Find a way to stretch your love.
