SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME TODAY'S FOCUS: MORE

It is tempting to try and figure out the bare minimum that we can do and still think we are a follower of Christ. But he always challenges us to do more than the minimum, to stay away from the Tempter who leads us down that path.

We have choices between life and death, good and evil, right and wrong, and giving good example or leading others astray. Choices have consequences. The "more" is challenging. However, when we want to do all we can to live God's ways, we will see the mystery of God present even when we fall, lifting us up to a newness of life that is prepared for those who love God.

Sirach 15: 15-20

Psalm 119: 1b

1 Corinthians 2: 6-10

Matthew 5: 17-37 or 5: 20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

Instruct me, O Lord, in your ways,. Free me to seek you, even when you ask more of me that I think I am able to give. Help me be an example that invites others to you rather than leads them away.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

St Valentine was a Holy Priest in Rome, who, was sent to prison under Claudius II for not renouncing his faith. While in prison he converted 46 members of a guards family to Christianity. One legend says while awaiting execution, he restored the sight of his jailers blind daughter, On the eve of his death, he penned a farewell note to the jailer's daughter and signed it. "From your Valentine."
