IN THIS YEAR OF MARY
Mary, The Virgin Mother of Grace

After the fall, man became subject to sin, misery, disease and death. God, who is rich in mercy, gave us two persons animated with tenderest sentiments of compassion and mercy—Jesus and Mary. Jesus willed to become like one of us and chose to know sorrow. Mary, the Mother of Sorrows, became the loving Mother of mankind beneath the Cross. She is full of compassionate mercy. Entreat her help for suffering mankind. Show this consideration for the people with whom you associate and Mary will prove herself a Mother of mercy to you.

“And for generation upon generation is His mercy, to those who fear Him” (Luke 1:50).

Vocations

Like the one who finds treasure buried in a field or a merchant who finds a pearl of great price, when we discover God’s vocation for us, we are called to let go of all else so as to live out God’s plan for us. If you think /god may be offering you the grace of a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, contact Fr. Christopher Luoni @ 330-744-8451, or by email at: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

Hope and Healing for those Suffering After Abortion

Do you know someone who is suffering because of an abortion in their past? Encourage them to seek confidential care after abortion at Project Rachel of Northeast Ohio at 888-259-4806 or supprt@projrachneo.zohosupport.org.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.” Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, means that God’s plan for our lives may be different than our plan. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

A Note from our Director of Music

Last weekend at our parish festival, I had a conversation with some parishioners about the songs for communion. For our Feast Day weekend, we sang "As I Kneel Before You", a beloved hymn in honor of our Blessed Mother. I was asked why we do not often sing Marian hymns for communion unless it is a Marian feast day. While in this year of Mary, we have been and will continue to sing many Marian hymns at Mass, the reason they often fall outside of Communion is given in the Liturgical directives.

The directives state: "In selecting a Communion song suitable for the Eucharistic banquet in which God's blessings are bestowed so abundantly, one should look for texts that have themes of joy, wonder, unity, gratitude, and praise. Following ancient Roman liturgical tradition, the Communion song might reflect themes of the Gospel reading of the day. It is also appropriate to select a Communion processional song that reflects the liturgical action, i.e., eating and drinking the Body and Blood of Christ."

This weekend, as we continue to hear the parables of Jesus speaking to us of the kingdom, we will praise Mary as our mother at the offertory, with "Sing of Mary". This hymn reflects on Mary's role in our tradition: being the mother of our Savior who came forth from her side to preach these parables to us, the mother in pain at the foot of the cross, and the mother robed in splendor in the heavens. To go along with the aforementioned Communion Rite directives, the hymn during the Communion procession this weekend, "Blest are They", reflects the kingdom of God portrayed in the Gospel; it also speaks of the nourishment we receive at the altar, for those of us who hunger and thirst for God will have our fill at the Eucharistic table.

 Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOTE:

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the faithful.

The faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord's prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

On the above days, I plan to announce these special days in advance so that the Faithful may mark their calendar. God's choicest blessing upon you in this Special Year of Mary, May 17, 2017-May 13, 2018 the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima.

Msgr. Michael Cariglio, Jr. Rector

Our Sympathy

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for repose of soul, ANNA S. REGA, age 93, whose Mass of Christian burial was this past week.

REGISTRATION: Members of the parish must be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mount Carmel envelopes, this means you are not registered. Call the rectory at 330-743-4144, Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.—3 p.m. And we will send you a registration form. Families who have members of our church staying with them who are shut-ins or who are in nursing homes should include them as members of their household. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory as soon as possible. Thank you.

REMEMBER US LAST: When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.
