

Return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning. Rend your hearts, not your garments, and return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love, and relenting in punishment. Joel 2:12-13

Catholic Exponent

For the second Sunday in Lent, we hear the story of the Transfiguration, when Jesus took Peter, James, and John to the mountaintop and revealed His glory. How many of us would love to be with Jesus on the mountaintop and see His glory? Perhaps we can't go to the mountain, but we can take a little time apart from the hectic nature of our lives to reflect on god, His presence and His glory. Our diocesan newspaper, the Catholic Exponent, helps nudge us back to our awareness of God's presence. In addition to offering news about the Church right here in our diocese and around the world, the Exponent brings commentary, Scripture reflection, and adult faith formation—all nourishing food for your faith and life. Your support for the Exponent nurtures not only you but also your fellow Catholics who are in need of encouragement as well. Subscribe or renew your subscription today by dropping "The Catholic Exponent" envelope from your parish packet into the collection basket. Or call 330-744-5251 or email us at exposubscriptions@youngstowndiocese.org to request subscription information. Remember God's presence in your life. Read and support the Catholic Exponent.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians, I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR FEBRUARY:

SAY "NO" TO CORRUPTION. That those who have material, political or spiritual power may resist the lure of corruption.

Readings for the Week of February 25, 2018

Sunday	Second Sunday of Lent
	Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Ps 116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19; Rom 8:31b-34; Mk 9:2-10

Abraham offers the ultimate sacrifice of thanksgiving, the gift of his very son. This sacrifice prefigures the sacrifice of Jesus who died for us all. In his transfiguration, Jesus discloses a suffering messiahship.

REGISTRATION: Members of the parish must be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mount Carmel envelopes, this means you are not registered. Call the rectory at 330-743-4144, Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.—3 p.m. And we will send you a registration form. Families who have members of our church staying with them who are shut-ins or who are in nursing homes should include them as members of their household. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory as soon as possible. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"Here I am! He answered." Genesis 22:11

It is easy to say, "here I am, Lord," when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say "Here I am, Lord," when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it's not convenient for us. Discipleship is not always easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

2018 Bishop's Appeal for Catholic Charities and Church

Jesus reminds us that wheat we do for the least among us, we do for him. This past year, thousands of people-many of whom live and work in your community-came to Catholic Charities Regional Agency for assistance with food, shelter, clothing, utilities and other basic needs. Because of your support for the Bishop's Appeal for Catholic Charities and Church, these individuals and families received the help and hope they needed for a better tomorrow. Please help Catholic Charities help the poor by making a commitment to the 2018 Bishop's Appeal. Thank you for your prayers and support.

Craig's corner
A Note from our Director of Music

The Church gives us a foretaste of Jesus' Resurrection in the Lenten season this weekend in the Gospel account of the Transfiguration: Jesus changes briefly in appearance before a few of his disciples. But Jesus tells them not to speak of this event again until he is raised from the dead. Of course, we know how the Gospel ends, but imagine being one of the disciples at this time! The evangelist Mark comments on this at the end of the Gospel from this weekend as he remarks that the disciples were very confused as to what rising from the dead actually meant.

Our music this weekend has a twofold purpose: to hold us in the strict disciplines of Lent but also to offer a brief glimpse of this glory the disciples saw. Our opening hymn, "From Ashes to the Living Font," describes the Lenten journey for us, beginning on Ash Wednesday and preparing us for the font of new life at Easter. The hymn continues by praying that we ourselves can become transfigured to new heights as we renew our hearts and minds this season; we, as a Church, desire to journey still through cross and tomb to Easter joy and spirit, fire fulfilled, so that we can be prepared to complete the story of our salvation through Pentecost when we are filled with the Spirit to go forth and proclaim Jesus' name in our world today. Our offertory hymn, "God's Holy Mountain We Ascend," reminds us of the significance of the mountain in the Gospel. Not only did Jesus transfigure himself on a mountain, but he also proclaimed many teachings from the mountaintop. For example, it was on a mountain that he multiplied the loaves and fishes, and so we come to recall the festive meal of the Eucharist as well as we ascend to God's holy mountain every time we come to Mass. At communion, we sing our prayer to take this Lenten season ever more serious, asking God to draw near to us as we are guilty of sin, so that we can furthermore be ready to see not just a glimpse of glory, but the full glory of the resurrection on Easter.

This weekend's postlude, Samuel Barber's Adagio for Strings is a common orchestral piece which was transcribed for the organ as well. The piece has been used for many national funerals, including JFK, and was played at a concert to honor the victims of the 9/11 attacks in 2001. The piece has a very calming melody, which is repeated and developed through the work, and ascends to the climax with a brief glimpse of glory before diminishing to almost nothing. The final statement of the original melody concludes the piece.

We cannot experience the full joy of Easter without first experiencing the pain of the cross as well. We only get a glimpse of the Resurrection this weekend, and still have a lot of time in this Lenten season to prepare ourselves in penance and charity to celebrate Easter.

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord's prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

FEAST OF THE SEVEN SORROWS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Holy Church honors Our lady's Sorrows by two feasts—one observed on the Friday of Passion week, and the other on the 15th of September. The first recalls especially her sufferings during the Passion of Our Lord; the second is dedicated more particularly to her lifelong sorrows. Mary's sorrow on Calvary was deeper than any sorrow ever felt on earth, for no mother in all the world had a heart as tender as the heart of the Mother of God. She bore her sufferings for you that you might enjoy the graces of Redemption. She suffered willingly in order to prove her great love for you, for true love is proved by sacrifice. Give yourself over to her love completely, and bear your cross patiently in union with your Mother of Sorrows.

Vacation Bible School is June 18th—22, 2018 9am– 12noon Let us know if you are able to spend some time helping.
