2018 Bishop's Appeal for Catholic Charities and Church

Every day in Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull Counties, people who are hungry look for food; people who are homeless look for shelter; and people who feel forgotten look for care and compassion. Catholic Charities Regional Agency provides help and creates hope for thousands of individuals and families each year. Your support for the Bishop's Appeal for Catholic Charities and Church makes this important work possible. Please be generous in your support for the 2018 Bishop's Appeal.

We welcome into the Catholic Family of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica, DOMINIC ROBERT YOHMAN, son of James Robert Yohman and Michelle Marie Chufu Yohman, who was born again of water and the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of baptism.

OUR LADY OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

WE INVOKE the blessed Virgin Mary under the title of "Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament" because she is the Mother of Jesus who lives in the Eucharist, for it was from her that he assumed the Flesh and Blood with which he nourishes us. Through her we receive every grace and consequently those graces contained in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. She was the first to practice the duties of a truly Eucharistic life showing us by her example how we ought to assist at Mass, receive Holy Communion and visit the Most Blessed Sacrament. Love Mary and you will love the Eucharistic Christ. Love the Eucharistic Christ and you are not far from Mary, for the Mother and the Son are inseparable. "My delights are to be with the children of men." (Prov. 8, 31)

PRAYER

O LORD, abide with Your people who are refreshed by receiving Your Body and Blood, that by the help of Your most holy Mother we may be freed from all evil and be protected in every good work. Who live and reign forever Amen.

A Note from our Director of Music

Our readings this weekend appear to be quite sinister at a first glance. Regardless if you attend Mass with the RCIA scrutiny or the year B readings, they both set a similar tone as we close in on Holy Week. Most of us will hear Jesus telling the disciples that He is troubled but this is the reason He was called to this world: to die for us. Jesus came down to suffer so much after doing so much good. But He also reminds us, like the grain of wheat that does not produce fruit until it dies, we are to be comforted. Death is not the final word; Jesus will be glorified, and so will we if we follow Him. The Gospel for the scrutiny in Year A at the 5PM Mass also carries this theme, as we hear Jesus remind Martha and Mary by the raising of Lazarus that even though death is a reality on earth, if we believe that Jesus is the resurrection and the life, we will share in His glory for eternity.

These sentiments are echoed in the verses of our Communion chant this weekend, "Eat this Bread." Each time we attend Mass, we hear the account of the Last Supper when Jesus gave us the Eucharist as a meal of remembrance of His suffering. However, if we look deeper and take the text a little farther, we remember His words that those who eat the bread and drink the cup will live forever and have eternal life. Our other hymns this weekend bring us into the portion of our Liturgical calendar known of as Passiontide. This is the final two weeks of the Lenten season with our statues now covered, in which we focus on the cross of Christ. We also take this weekend to honor Saint Joseph as his feast day falls on March 19. The hymn in his honor, "O Joseph, Mighty Patron," prays that Joseph, who loved and cared for Mary and Jesus, watch over us also as the Church of our day so that someday we can become one family in heaven.

Jesus' words to Martha and Mary in the year A readings or Jesus' words to the apostles in the year B readings are not meant to scare us or make us fear death, but rather remind us that Jesus' death was to save us and bring us to Himself. No matter how sinister it sounds, death in this world is not the final word if we believe in Jesus. That sentiment from these Gospels is echoed in this weekend's postlude, Bach's "Come, Sweet Death." It is a text of knowing that the suffering on this earth is not permanent if we believe in Christ. It is a text longing for the peacefulness of heaven, the same heaven being prepared for us who eat the bread we receive at the altar, and we who believe in Jesus, the resurrection and the life.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"I will be their God and they shall be my people." JEREMIAH 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts

Bocce Time

"It's Bocce Time" again! The Knights of Columbus, Immacolata Council #15086 will be organizing our parish summer bocce league again this year. Last year's league was a great success and there are calls for us to play bocce again. All games are played at our bocce courts located down the stairs behind the out-door Stations of The Cross at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica. This is a family friendly bocce league, all are welcome to enter a team. There are rules to the game, but our main rule is to have fun and enjoy each other's company. The Knights also wish to bring our Parish Family together and promote our Italian culture. Anyone interested in enjoying some family fun on the bocce courts please contact Schott Schulick at 330-727-8507 or Sam Accordino @ 330-518-1962 by May 21st. Thank you and see you all on the bocce courts!

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica - St. Anthony Padua Parish
Very Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Cariglio, JCL
343 Via Mount Carmel
Youngstown, OH 44505

Dear Monsignor Cariglio:

During this season of giving, Catholic Charities is grateful for the support you and your parishioners have given to this year's Keep the Kids Warm campaign. Your generous gift of $803.00 will provide winter utility assistance to low income and working poor families who look to Catholic Charities for help and hope as they struggle to make ends meet.

Since 2008, Catholic Charities has raised more than $350,000 through Keep the Kids Warm. Over 50,000 families have been impacted by the generosity of people like you who helped to provide gas, electricity and water to poor families with children. Thousands more will need assistance from Catholic Charities in the cold winter months ahead. Your gift today will help us to provide help and create hope for those most in need.

Thank you for supporting Keep the Kids Warm. Please remember to visit our website at www.ccdoy.org to learn more about the various programs, services, and special initiatives and news related to Catholic Charities, Diocese of Youngstown.

May God bless you and your parishioners this winter season!

Sincerely,

Rachel A. Hrbolich
