Hear our prayers for your Shepherd and ours, Bishop George Murry. Give him healing and health. Grant him strength and courage during his time of treatment. May he receive your peace and blessing. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: "The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ....." ROMANS 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

A familiar text to many priests, deacons, and religious is that of the Te Deum. Many scholars agree that the text of this hymn goes back to Nicetas, Bishop of Remesiana / Romatiana in what is now Serbia, born around 335 and died in about 414. It is sung or recited often at the end of the Liturgy of the Hours most Sundays and feasts of the year outside of Advent, Lent, and Holy Week. It is also used for days of special blessing, such as the election of a Pope. Most Christians would recognize the English metrical translation to be that of the hymn, “Holy God, We Praise Thy Name” or “You are God, We Praise You.” The text fits that of many hymns which contain the doxology, and has sections in it devoted to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit which we celebrate this weekend.

Jean Langlais was a Twentieth Century composer who often took these old Gregorian Chant melodies and made them very new in his organ and choral works. Jean concluded his Three Gregorian Paraphrases composition with the Te Deum, which is the postlude this weekend.

Another chant melody used to honor the Trinity is Ave colenda Trinitas, which is the text of our opening hymn this weekend, “All Hail, Adored Trinity.” This hymn is set to the Old Hundredth hymn tune which we are all familiar with. English composer Henry Purcell wrote an organ voluntary based on this hymn melody, which is used as our prelude on this Trinity weekend.

“Glory be to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, amen.” This prayer, the Glory be or Gloria Patri, has been part of Christianity since its beginnings, as St. Paul often praises the Trinity in these or similar words in many of his writings. The term for this praise of God is doxology. While we pray these words when reciting the rosary and at other times in prayer, adaptations of this doxology are found in many hymns and psalms as a final verse. One of many examples is our offertory hymn this weekend, Come, Our Almighty King: verse 1 praises God as Father, verse 2 praises Jesus the incarnate Word, verse 3 praises the Spirit as comforter, and verse 4 is the doxology, praising the One in Three, the eternal Trinity forevermore. While this weekend’s solemnity of the Trinity calls special attention to the Triune God, we praise the Trinity each time we pray and begin our Masses. Can you think of other hymns (there are many) whose final verse serves as a doxology?

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church: An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord’s prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

Feast Days

Why we celebrate and process in the streets on the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and St. Anthony of Padua. It's part of our tradition honoring our Patron Saints.

The Catholic Church assigns one date out of the year for each and every canonized saint — known as the saint's feast day.
The saints are remembered on their individual feast days with special mention, prayers, and possibly a scripture reading.

On some feast days, Catholics process through the streets and host festivals with plenty of pomp and circumstance. And with some feasts, parishes often have a special Mass and may even have a nine-day novena, which usually concludes on the day of the feast itself.

Join in the celebration!

Inviting all youth K-12th and families to take part in Mass and the Processional activities in honor of:

Corpus Christi, June 3rd following the Noon Mass at OLMC there will be the traditional in the street procession celebrating the Body and Blood of Christ.
