Our Feast of St. Anthony is fast approaching, I'm starting to collect items for our Italian Auction. So again I'm asking for baskets, gift cards, small appliances, basket items. Just drop anything off that you think can be used for this auction. Spring cleaning is a good time to find those new items you bought and haven't used. If you can't drop it off, give me a call and I will be glad to pick up. June

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
TODAY'S FOCUS: GIVE LOVE, RECEIVE LOVE

As the community of Jesus' first followers grew, they also grew in their understanding of how boundless God's love is, and how boundless is the call to live in that love.

We hear Jesus tell his disciples to remain in his love by keeping his command to "love one another." Since God shows no partiality, this love is inclusive of all. Besides being all-inclusive, Jesus' command is sacrificial. He laid down his life for his friends.

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48
Psalm 98:2b
1 John 4:7-10
John 15:9-17

Holy God, you loved us into being and sent your Son into our midst, even after we rejected that love and turned away from you. May our contemplation of your love for us free us to live Jesus' command to love one another, just as you love us.

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints..

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles
3. July 16th Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord's prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

Msgr. Michael J. Cariglio, Jr. Rector
