Consider Natural Family Planning

July 22-28 is Natural Family Planning Awareness week and this year's theme is "Generations of Love: Humanae Vitae (1968-2018)." July 25 marks the 50th anniversary of Blessed Pope Paul VI's encyclical letter Humanae Vitae which articulates the Church's teaching about human sexuality, conjugal love and responsible parenthood. In the last fifty years there has been significant progress in modern methods of Natural Family Planning which are scientifically researched methods based on observation of the naturally occurring signs and symptoms of the fertile and infertile phase of a women's menstrual cycle. To learn more go to www.doy.org or contact dschmide@youngstowndiocese.org or 330-744-8451, ext. 272.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians, I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

SOCIAL NETWORKS: That priests, who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests.

FOR SPECIAL INTENTION

Father in heaven,

Hear our prayers for your Shepherd and ours, Bishop George Murry. Give him healing and health. Grant him strength and courage during his time of treatment. May he receive your peace and blessing. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: "As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, "Son of man, I am sending you..." (Ezekiel 2:2-3)

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

REGISTRATION: Members of the parish must be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mount Carmel envelopes, this means you are not registered. Call the rectory at 330-743-4144, Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.—3 p.m. And we will send you a registration form. Families who have members of our church staying with them who are shut-ins or who are in nursing homes should include them as members of their household. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory as soon as possible. Thank you.

A Note from our Director of Music

Last week, our readings centered on how because of sin, sickness and death entered the world. We heard of a few accounts of people who came to him sick and in need, and because of their faith he helped them. This week, it's almost a complete 180 degree turn as where Jesus goes in the Gospel, people are treating him with hostility. The last lines in the Gospel this weekend says that He was unable to perform many signs there and they were offended at His presence.

This weekend's psalm reminds us that since we are not perfect, we need to plead for God's mercy. We must not lack faith, but rather turn to Him. This is echoed in the second reading in St. Paul's words telling us that in order to be strong in our faith, we must be content with weakness and insult on earth. The rest of our music this weekend invites us to gather for our Sunday obligation remembering it is Christ who strengthens us. In the opening hymn, "We Gather Together," the line "we are His holy people whose freedom He won," reminds us that He came down to earth to win us freedom from sin and death. Unlike those in the Gospel, we should be coming to Him, not questioning His authority but accepting that He is the Savior. Our offertory hymn, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" consoles us that, if we come to Him and seek Him in faith that He will refresh us with living waters, and lay our cares upon Him. It is the sacrament of the altar that we partake of, the "Communion of Love" which we sing of at communion time, which binds us all together as Catholics. This is the gift which strengthens us, the gift of Christ Himself, the unblemished offering.

The Prophet Ezekiel foreshadows the entire weekend's theme in the first reading, warning that to be a prophet, we encounter those who may be obstinate of heart. Jesus encountered this when He was in His ministry, and we know that it is not always easy to live our faith. Let us turn to the Lord this week, not questioning his authority, but rather, pleading for His mercy; living by example so that all people, like our opening hymn concludes, "may grow in knowledge, in faith, hope, and love."

Instrumental Music Selections for July 7 – 8: Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prelude: Choral Dorien – Jehan Alain

Postlude: Little Fugue in G Minor BWV 578 – J.S. Bach

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord's prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.
