DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians, I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

SOCIAL NETWORKS: That priests, who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests.

Father in heaven,

Hear our prayers for your Shepherd and ours, Bishop George Murry. Give him healing and health. Grant him strength and courage during his time of treatment. May he receive your peace and blessing. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: "He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. When we really put God first in everything and put money and possessions second, we experience more freedom to joyfully serve God and others.

Thank You!

A special Thank you to the Senior Citizens who donated cookies for the St. Anthony Feast Day.

A Note from our Director of Music

Our Sunday celebration of the Eucharist and the life and teachings of Jesus could never have been possible without the fiat of his mother, Mary. Because of her “yes” to God, we are able to receive her Son in the Sacraments. This weekend, we honor Mary in a special way, as the patroness of our basilica under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Marian devotions originated in the early Church and continue to expand through the centuries as more people turn to her powerful intercession, as is evident by her many apparitions. This is also true for Marian hymns, which flourish in many traditions, languages, and forms.

Jean Langlais (1907-1991) was a blind organist and composer in France during the twentieth century. His most prominent job was at St. Clotilde in Paris, where he succeeded Cesar Franck and Charles Tournemire, two famous composers. Many of his works are deeply spiritual and were rooted in his Catholic faith. His Trois Paraphrases Gregoriennes is a testament to the love he had for the Gregorian chant melodies he learned as a choir boy. The second movement of this suite, the Ave Maria. Ave Maris Stella, shows Langlais’ devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary bringing out two ancient melodies. To open the piece, while imitated in the strings, the full statement of the Ave Maria comes to us in a flute sound. In the next section, where “pray for us sinners” would be, is full of agitation. This suppresses into the Ave Maris Stella, heard on a trumpet sound with a celestial mystical accompaniment. The piece ends as it began, with soft strings and the flute restating the original Gregorian Ave Maria theme. This work is our prelude this weekend.

As we pray to, sing to, and celebrate Mary this weekend, may we turn toward her and ask for her help. As our beloved parish hymn Immacolata prays, though we are sinners, we are still her children and must ask for her intercession. I want to, in a special way, thank our instrumentalists, cantors, and our basilica choir joined with St. Anthony of Padua choir members for making our Masses extra special this weekend.

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord’s prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

Msgr. Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Rector

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

Pre-Planning is Peace of Mind for You

Catholic cemeteries offer pre-need planning.

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Youngstown has experienced, caring Family Service Representatives to provide both At-Need assistance (for a death that has already occurred) and Pre-Need planning. Pre-Need planning allows for a less stressful-more informed decision by relieving loved ones of the emotional and financial burdens at a very difficult time.

The Right Time To Make A Cemetery Selection

All major decisions are best made with careful planning: The purchase of a home; putting money aside for your children's education; Investing for your retirement. The planning you do today assures that your goals will be met in the future.

The same is true for selecting a cemetery and a family interment site. It has been shown time and time again that pre-need planning results in a better informed decision, while relieving loved ones of the task of having to make the choice at a very difficult time.

The selection of a final resting place is inevitable, and will be made either by you or your surviving family members. You can consider your options more carefully by choosing a burial site or mausoleum space in advance. A member of the cemetery staff will sit down with you and explain the various types of services and products that are available. By discussing and comparing the choices this way, you'll be better equipped to make a well-informed decision.

Perhaps, more importantly, pre-need planning relieves your family of the burden of choosing a site and making other arrangements during a time of great sadness, stress and confusion. It also guarantees that your wishes are fulfilled and helps to minimize any undue family pressure. Pre-need cemetery selection also alleviates some of the financial burden at a time when there are other expenses your family must meet.

Benefits of Pre-Planning Your Cemetery Arrangements

1. Both you and your spouse plan together calmly and prudently not alone.
2. Able to make use of payment options (no interest) instead of payment in full.
3. Saves life insurance benefits for your surviving family.
4. Gives your family, especially your children, peace of mind.
5. Saves money by purchasing future services and products at today's prices.
6. Able to use good sound judgment not making rash decisions while under emotional stress.
7. Pre-planning assures that your wishes are made known and followed.
