DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians, I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

Father in heaven,

Hear our prayers for your Shepherd and ours, Bishop George Murry. Give him healing and health. Grant him strength and courage during his time of treatment. May he receive your peace and blessing. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"...come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest awhile." (Mark 6:31)

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

REGISTRATION: Members of the parish must be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mount Carmel envelopes, this means you are not registered. Call the rectory at 330-743-4144, Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.—3 p.m. And we will send you a registration form. Families who have members of our church staying with them who are shut-ins or who are in nursing homes should include them as members of their household. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory as soon as possible. Thank you.

Craig's Corner

A Note from our Director of Music

Saint Augustine said it best: "Singing is for the one who loves. Music is therefore a sign of God's love for us and of our love for Him. In this sense, it is very personal. But unless music sounds, it is not music, and whenever it sounds, it is accessible to others. By its very nature song has both an individual and a communal dimension. Thus, it is no wonder that singing together in church expresses so well the sacramental presence of God to His people."

Singing is an integral part of our Mass. Each weekend, we come to Mass and sing psalms, hymns, and chants as praise to God, His Son, and our Spiritual Mother, Mary. The Church in its structure of the Mass gives many opportunities to sing, but there are two parts of the Sunday celebration where singing must accompany a procession. Can you guess what they are?

I'll tell you. The first is the opening procession and the second is the communion procession. Both of these parts of the Mass have an antiphon located in the Roman Missal, but another hymn or seasonal psalm may be used in its place. The offertory procession does not have to contain a sung response; an instrumental piece, solo voice, choral piece, or even silence is appropriate at the offertory. The same is true about the conclusion of Mass. The Mass ends with the priest or deacon's dismissal and what takes place after that – whether a simple exit of the Liturgical ministers or a recessional – can be a closing hymn, a choral piece, an instrumental piece, or silence as the congregation exits.

This weekend, our readings and music focus on praise of our God and Trinity as it is God the Son, our Shepherd, who comforts us and teaches His people who are "like sheep without a shepherd." These summer Sundays in Ordinary Time can often seem very basic in terms of our faith, but we cannot let them slip by. Let us come to the altar each week ready to renew our faith, listen to what God calls us to do, and let our music sound and be accessible to others.

Instrumental Music Selections for July 21-22: Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prelude: Pastorale – David Schack

Postlude: Rigaudon – André Campra

Sponsor of the week:

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord's prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

Msgr. Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Rector

In your charity, please pray for the repose of the soul of PHILLIP PANNO, age 87, whose Mass of Christian burial were this past week.

Intercession for Vocations:

That with dedicated spirits, we ask the Christ the Good Shepherd to provide an abundance of vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life in our diocese to help gather the sheep of the flock, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.
