Craig's Corner

A Note from our Director of Music

“God has bestowed upon His people the gift of song. God dwells within each human person, in the place where music takes its source. Indeed, God, the giver of song, is present whenever His people sing His praises.”

I’ve opened the last two weeks’ worth of bulletins with this line, which comes from the opening of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops’ document, Sing to the Lord; it states the importance of using our gift of music, no matter how big or small it may be, to sing God’s praises. This weekend I would like to extend an invitation to any new members who may want to sing God’s praises through the choir ministry.

Our choir will resume singing the Sunday Masses beginning on September 23 at the 10AM Mass. I want to take this opportunity to invite anyone high school age or older to join our choir as we begin another season. If you are interested in this ministry, please contact me at 330-770-6504 or see me after any weekend Masses in the weeks ahead.

This weekend’s readings and music focus on our ministry as Catholic Christians to observe the commandments of the Lord. We are a priestly people, who are to live in service to one another in love. We come to hear God’s word each weekend, but St. James reminds us that we must also act on this word as well. As our psalm states, if we foster God’s justice, we will live in the Lord’s presence. Let us pray this weekend, with our Mother Mary, that we do not cling to human tradition as Jesus accuses the Pharisees in today’s Gospel; rather, let us live in God’s presence, hearing His word and living it in the week ahead.

Instrumental Music Selections for September 1-2:
Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prelude: Sinfonia in B Flat – G.F. Handel

Offertory: Meditation (“You Shall Love Your Neighbor as Yourself”) – Pierre Foray

Postlude: Trumpet Processional in G – David German

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord’s prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.
