INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That there will be an abundance of laborers chosen by the Lord to serve as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life in this vineyard of the Diocese of Youngstown, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"If anyone wished to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." (Mark 9:35)

Jesus teaches us that we are called to serve one another. Sacrifice is not a word that many people like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

REMEMBER US LAST:

When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.

Mr. Scott R. Schulick

On Sunday, September 16, 2018 at St. Columba Cathedral, Youngstown. Mr. Mark Izzo was installed into the Ministry of Acolyte during the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass. Congratulations to Mark. May God bless him in his final preparation for ordination to the diaconate.

Dear Parish Family,

As I continue in formation for the Permanent Diaconate, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the many prayers and words of encouragement many of you have offered during this time of study. Your love, support, and prayers are much appreciated.

On a recent trip to Italy, I requested a Mass to be offered at the Basilica of St. Peter in Rome for the parishioners of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica—St. Anthony of Padua Parish.

May you be blessed by the graces of this Mass and continue to live with faith, hope, and love in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

WITH FAITH IN THE FUTURE:

Last Sunday as Catechists were recognized, did you wonder what the word catechist means? The word might be more familiar than you think. Many Catholics have used the word "catechism" for years, and they know it has something to do with the compendium of the Church's teachings. The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word meaning "to echo, or resound." Catechesis is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world. A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church.

Craig's Corner

A Note from our Director of Music

A few weeks ago, Father Larry Richards from Living Bread Radio came here to talk about the answer to the question: "How do we get to heaven?" Monsignor Cariglio brought up a few of the points Fr. Richards made in the talk in his homily the Sunday following, recalling that one of the key points was fulfilling the commandment of true love. This weekend's scriptures open before us a similar picture as St. James talks about how jealousy and selfish ambition do not lead to good works; rather, wisdom from above and the fruits of righteousness are what cultivate peace. Jesus echoes the sentiments of peace in the Gospel this weekend as He peacefully places a child in the midst of the disciples, who are arguing about earthly things like which one of them is the greatest.

Christ calls us this weekend to be at peace with one another instead of fight over earthly things, which are the source of selfish ambition and foul practice according to St. James. Our offertory hymn, "I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light," reminds us that if we come to Jesus, we find no distinction between night and day. If we follow Jesus, instead of being concerned regarding the things of earth, we are at peace. One of the most familiar prayers of peace come from St. Francis of Assisi and his text which we sing at Communion this weekend. "The Prayer of St. Francis" also reminds us to focus on Christ and in hatred, be loving; in sadness, find joy; and in darkness, be light. Jesus tells us that if we receive His children like He does, then we will also receive Him.

Let us crown Him Lord of all as our opening hymn states this weekend. In doing this, we shall be at peace. Our music and readings this weekend focus on Christ as the center of our faith; in the week ahead, let us live this out in our workplaces and community, leaving selfishness and jealousy aside.

My Little Prayer Process

1. Thank God for whomever and whatever you are most grateful today.
2. Think about yesterday. Talk to God about the times when you were and were not the-best-version-of-yourself.
3. What do you think God is trying to say to you today? Talk to him about that.
4. Ask God to forgive you for anything you have done wrong and to fill your heart with peace.
5. Talk to God about some way he is inviting you to change and grow.
6. Pray for the other people in your life by asking God to guide them and watch over them.
7. Pray the Our Father.

From the Rector

Dear Friends in Christ,

From time to time I have been asked how to gain a Plenary Indulgence.

In answer I borrow from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of Redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury and satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

An indulgence is plenary as it removes all temporal punishment due to sin. Indulgences may be applied to the living and the dead.

Pope Francis has granted to Our Lady of Mt Carmel minor Basilica special days for the opportunity of a plenary indulgence by the Faithful:

1. May 13th—the day Pope Francis by decree elevated Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church to a minor basilica.
2. June 29th the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.
3. July 16th Feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
4. October 7th the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary
5. December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the day of the dedication of the basilica.
6. Once a year on a day freely chosen by each of the Faithful.

The Faithful who devoutly visit the basilica and within it participate in any sacred rite or at least recite the Lord's prayer and the profession of faith may obtain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and the prayer for the intention of the Supreme Pontiff Our Holy Father Pope Francis.

The Light of Faith & Families

While the program is still in the forming and growing stages, we have been blessed by the people who have stepped forward and offered their time, talents and gifts to help serve the community. Our Knights of Columbus and Mijavec's Catering graciously agreed to serve Brunch for our Religious Education families. Other parish committees will be serving throughout the year. The catechists who are serving our families with teaching the children. Our maintenance who have taken time to set and arrange tables so that our gatherings can happen. Most of all thank you to the families who have embraced the ongoing changes and delays as we mold the family talents of many into an awesome program.

Summary: What is RESPECT? See the little card above.

This past week, the scriptural identities of Christ was shared. To understand and embrace all that God has given us we must look at the entirety of Christ's life and teachings.

Thank you, God bless you.
