I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians, I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“And Jesus said to him, ‘Go your way; your faith has made you well.’ And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.” Mark 10:52

Faith is believing in something even though you may not be able to see it. Many people think that miracles don't happen anymore. But, if you focus on the positive, not the negative, focus on your blessings instead of your hardships, miracles will seem common and you will see God's active presence in your daily life.

REMEMBER US LAST:

When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That men and women will be encouraged to love God and their neighbor and follow Him generously when chosen to serve others as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated religious life, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.” When we ask in prayer, Jesus will give us the ability to see and follow in his way. Could this way be to accept a vocation to the priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life? For help in understanding your call, contact Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451 or email him at cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

A Note from our Director of Music

“Music arises out of silence and returns to silence. God is revealed both in the beauty of song and in the power of silence. The Sacred Liturgy has its rhythm of texts, actions, songs, and silence. Silence in the Liturgy allows the community to reflect on what it has heard and experienced, and to open its heart to the mystery celebrated. Ministers and pastoral musicians should take care that the rites unfold with the proper ebb and flow of sound and silence. The importance of silence in the Liturgy cannot be overemphasized.”

This directive, taken from the United States Bishops’ document Sing to the Lord, states how important silence is in our Liturgies. While music is a vital part of our celebration of Mass, the document also reminds us that silence is also very important. Periods of silence inserted into Mass often take place between the readings and the Gospel Acclamation prior to the Gospel, and before and after communion. As music minister, I always wait a few moments before beginning the communion hymn to allow for silence as well as after the communion hymn either as the ministers are finishing up at the tabernacle, or the presider will return to the chair and sit in silence briefly before the post-communion prayer. Often times also, the presider may say the traditional “let us pray” and wait a few seconds for silent reflection before continuing on with the prayer.

This weekend’s Gospel and hymns focus on the healing and consoling power of Christ. It is the faith of the blind man, Bartimaeus which Jesus notices and heals him. So in our lives and in our faith are we healed, restored and forgiven, as our opening hymn states. In the first reading, the Prophet Jeremiah states that it is the Lord who gathers the blind and lame, leading them to brooks of water so that they cannot stumble. Our offertory hymn also reminds us that it is our faith in Christ which should comfort us in our trials. We may not be blind like Bartimaeus, but we do have our needs which we place upon Christ in our faith. Like Bartimaeus, the Gospel, Psalm, and Communion hymns this weekend, remind us that we will see the goodness of the Lord and be filled with joy if we come to him in faith.

Let us take our faith, and through our hymns this weekend, as well as in the periods of silence, use each moment of Mass to pray and praise the Lord, our rock and fortress, who heals us.
