STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.” (Luke 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation of the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await his second coming. In this Advent season, use the sacrament of Reconciliation to strengthen your relationship with Jesus. It’s never too late.

“May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all.” The call to live in love may be as a priest, religious or deacon. Do you know of someone or are you yourself called to live this way. If so, call Fr. Christopher Luoni, Vocation Director at 330-744-8451, or email: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

REMEMBER US LAST:

When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.

A Note from our Director of Music

One of the most familiar melodies of the Advent season is that of "O Come O Come Emmanuel." Many parishes use the Missa Emmanuel, a setting of the Mass where the Alleluia, Holy Holy Holy, Memorial Acclamations, Amen, and Lamb of God are set to this tune during Advent. We have a custom to use this Mass setting at Mt. Carmel, and will continue to use that again this year.

The Communion antiphon this weekend, "My Soul in Stillness Waits," is based on the "O" Antiphons, which have been a part of Roman Advent liturgies since the Eighth Century. Also a part of the Evening Prayer in the last days of Advent, these Antiphons use imagery from the Old Testament which proclaimed the coming Christ. We hear of these images (Wisdom from on high, Key of David, and others) also in our opening hymn this weekend, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel."

The first verse of this antiphon comes from another ancient Roman hymn, "Creator alme siderum." Depending which publisher's translation of the hymn you reference, this hymn is also "Creator of the Stars of Night" or, our translation, "O Lord of Light who Made the Stars." This hymn draws our attention to the dark world that required a Savior, and thus we await the coming of Christ our light at Christmas. The candles we begin lighting this weekend on our Advent Wreath symbolize this light as we add more light each weekend as we approach Christmas. The postlude this weekend is an arrangement of this ancient melody.

Let us all pray that the light of Christ, whom we await for this Advent, be with us all as we begin this season together.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

Thank you for supporting the Retirement Fund for Religious.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That all those now discerning their vocations will be alert and responsive to the invitation of Christ to follow him in love, We Pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION
Cold and Flu Season Reminder

During the cold and flu season please remember the following helpful and healthy reminders while at Mass:

General Considerations:

Cover your nose and mouth with a tissue when you cough or sneeze or cough/sneeze into your elbow.

Wash your hands with soap and water frequently. Alcohol based hand cleaners are also effective.

Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth.

Sign of Peace:

Do not be offended if someone chooses not to shake your hand at the sign of peace. If you are ill (and present at Mass, the appropriate response to someone extending a sign of peace might be to bow to them and say, "Peace be with you," to avoid contact while sick.

Reception of Holy Communion:

While it is the teaching of the Church that the fullness of the Body and Blood of Christ is contained in the Holy Eucharist under the form of the host that is distributed at Mass, the Church has also extended the privilege to receive Holy Communion under the form of wine. However, if you are feeling ill, please consider receiving Holy Communion in the hand and refrain from receiving the Precious Blood until you are returned to good health.

Advent A time we are called to prepare ourselves for the light of Christ.

Reflection: How would you answer this?

Do I spend more / less / equal time preparing my home, holiday meals, decorating working and shopping OR do I find myself spending more / less / equal time with helping others, being kinder, attending church and praying for others and myself?

Baptism Prep

Expecting or adopting a child? Now is the time to register for an upcoming Baptism Prep class. Classes are held @ 7pm in the John Paul II Center every other month.
