A Note from our Director of Music

Gaudete! Rejoice! The introit of this weekend's Mass tells us to rejoice! Our Advent season is beyond its halfway point and the coming of Christ at Christmas is very near. This weekend we light the rose colored candle of the Advent wreath to symbolize this extra joy. Our music reflects this joy this weekend. Our closing hymn, "People, Look East" has a joyous melody which matches the tone of the text, calling for all things on earth, from humans to God's creation, to prepare for the coming of Christ. Just like the birds prepare their nests and the frozen earth awaits new springtime, so must we ready ourselves to receive Christ at Christmas.

Why are we looking east? In ancient Church history, many churches literally faced towards the east. This is the direction the three Magi looked to see the star after Christ's birth. Religious philosopher Origen stated, "the direction of the rising sun obviously indicates that we ought to pray inclining in that direction, an act which symbolizes the soul looking towards where the true light rises." Also, in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus tells his disciples that "just as lightning comes from the east and is seen as far as the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Last Sunday and this weekend, Saint John the Baptist is a main figure in our readings. Our Communion Antiphon from the Roman Missal reminds us, as does the introit, that this Gaudete Sunday is one to be joyful; we should not fear because the coming of the Lord is close; he is coming to save us. Because of this, we, as our opening hymn states, proclaim this joyful message, our God is coming to earth!

Instrumental Music Selections for December 15-16:
Third Sunday of Advent

Postlude: Jazz Improvisation on "People, Look East" – Kristina Langlois

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." Philipians 4:6

St. Paul reminds us that our God is an abundant God, the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. When we trust that God will take care of us, it is easier for us to share what we have been given.

Sponsor of the week:

Families of Baby Loss—Have you, or has someone you know, suffered the death of a baby at any stage of pregnancy or beyond? Some families suffer in silence. Help us to find these families. We would like to remember these precious babies and their families by giving them an angel ornament this Christmas Season. Ornaments can be picked up before or after Mass the weekend of December 15/16 or December 22/23. Call or text Sharon Cross with name and best Mass time for pickup or for any additional information call 330-360-7261.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION
Cold and Flu Season Reminder

During the cold and flu season please remember the following helpful and healthy reminders while at Mass:

General Considerations:

Cover your nose and mouth with a tissue when you cough or sneeze or cough/sneeze into your elbow.

Wash your hands with soap and water frequently. Alcohol based hand cleaners are also effective.

Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth.

Sign of Peace:

Do not be offended if someone chooses not to shake your hand at the sign of peace. If you are ill (and present at Mass, the appropriate response to someone extending a sign of peace might be to bow to them and say, "Peace be with you," to avoid contact while sick.

Reception of Holy Communion:

While it is the teaching of the Church that the fullness of the Body and Blood of Christ is contained in the Holy Eucharist under the form of the host that is distributed at Mass, the Church has also extended the privilege to receive Holy Communion under the form of wine. However, if you are feeling ill, please consider receiving Holy Communion in the hand and refrain from receiving the Precious Blood until you are returned to good health.

First Reconciliation and Communion Preparation

If you have not registered your son or daughter for preparation then now is the time. They need to have attended one year of a structured class or attend Catholic School and Baptized before preparing. Call the Religious Education office.
