STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“No longer was there manna for the Israelites who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.” (JOSHUA 5:12)
Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land, the manna ceased. Likewise, God’s blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust God will always provide us with all that we need.

FOR VOCATIONS:

“Whoever is in Christ is a new creation.” Our Baptism calls us to new life in Christ. Whoever lets go of self to follow in His way, becomes His creation. Are you or someone you know called to live as His creation in a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life? To explore this further, contact Fr. Christopher Luoni at (330) 744-8451 or by email: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

Fasting and Abstinence

Fasting means eating a lesser amount of food. Catholics 18 and not 60 years of age must fast. The days on which we must fast are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Days of abstinence are days on which we do not eat any meal at all. Dairy products, fish and seafood are allowed. All Catholics over the age of 14 must abstain. The days of obligatory abstinence are Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent. On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, both the laws of fasting abstinence apply and no meat may be eaten.

Craig's Corner
A Note From Our Music Director

This weekend, our basilica blossoms in rose color as we celebrate our joy, in Latin, Laetare. The Gregorian introit which began the Mass on this Sunday in the ancient Church was taken from the prophet Isaiah, "Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning." Our opening hymn reminds us that while these forty days of Lent are days of intense prayer, longing for Easter joys, and fasting, they are still forty glorious days. We recall that on this weekend, we can joyfully celebrate that this season of repentance is past its halfway point, and the time to celebrate the saving acts of Jesus are approaching.

This glimpse of extra joy is evident in both postludes this weekend. In both pieces, the Choral Dorien or the Adagio for Strings, start out soft and contemplative but reach a fuller middle before dwindling off again to the original tone. This weekend is about hope, and as most of us will hear in the year C Gospel of the Prodigal Son, mercy. In his encyclical on mercy, the now Saint Pope John Paul II wrote, "Mercy - as Christ has presented it in the parable of the prodigal son - has the interior form of the love that in the New Testament is called agape. This love is able to reach down to every prodigal son, to every human misery, and above all to every form of moral misery, to sin. When this happens, the person who is the object of mercy does not feel humiliated, but rather found again and 'restored to value'. The father first and foremost expresses to him his joy that he has been 'found again' and that he has 'returned to life'. This joy indicates a good that has remained intact: even if he is a prodigal, a son does not cease to be truly his father's son; it also indicates a good that has been found again, which in the case of the prodigal son was his return to the truth about himself." The year A Gospel which is read at the 10AM Mass with the RCIA scrutiny, also shows the mercy of God through the healing of the man born blind.

Since the organ is used a little fuller this weekend than we have heard the other Sundays of Lent, may we find joy through our music this weekend, even if just a glimpse of what we will hear on Easter. This glimpse is also why the 10AM Mass Scrutiny revolves around the theme of light. As we go further into Lent and Passion Tide, let us be joyful that these are the saving acts of our salvation. Without the cross, we cannot come to the full joy of the resurrection!

Instrumental Music Selection for Sunday, March 30-31: Fourth Sunday of Lent

 Postlude (5PM): Choral Dorien – Jehan Alain
 Postlude (8AM, 10AM, Noon): Adagio for Strings – Samuel Barber

Readings for the Week of March 31, 2019

Sunday Fourth Sunday of Lent
 Jos 5:9a, 10-12 Ps 34:2-7 2 Cor 5:17-21
 Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

Having arrived in the promised land, the Hebrews celebrated their deliverance from affliction and distress (Ps) in the Passover (1). Christ, our Passover, has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation (2): let us forgive one another and celebrate the unconditional and abundant love of God our Father (3).

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR MARCH
Recognition of the Right of Christian Communities.

That Christian Communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.

HOLY WATER—A means of SPIRITUAL WEALTH

Holy water is a sacramental that remits venial sin. Because of the blessing attached to it, Holy Church strongly urges its use upon her children, especially when dangers threaten such as fire, storms, sickness and other calamities. We do not take advantage of the benefits derived from holy water. LET US CULTIVATE ITS USE.

Untold spiritual wealth is concentrated in a tiny drop of blessed water. And we give so little thought! Did, we realize now as we shall realize after death, the many benefits which may be derived from holy water, we would use it far more frequently and with greater faith and reverence. Holy water has its great power and efficacy from the prayers of the Church, which its Divine Founder always accepts with complacency. Following are some of the petitions the priest makes to God when he blesses water.

O God, the Creator of all things, by water and the Holy Spirit you have given the universe its beauty and fashioned us in your own image. Bless and purify Your Church.

O Christ the Lord from your pierced side you gave us your sacraments as fountains of salvation. Bless and purify Your Church.

O Holy Spirit, giver of life, from the baptismal font of the Church you have formed us into a new creation in the waters of rebirth. Bless and purify Your Church.

PRAYERS EFFECTIVE

These prayers ascend to heaven each time you take holy water and sprinkle a drop either for yourself or for another whether he be present or absent; and God's blessings descend for soul and body.

DISPEL THE DEVIL

The devil hates holy water because of its power over him. He cannot long abide in a place or near a person that is often sprinkled with this blessed water.

DO YOUR DEAR ONES LIVE AT A DISTANCE?

Holy water, sprinkled with faith and piety, can move the Sacred Heart to bless your loved ones and protect them from all harm of soul and body. When worry and fear take possession of your heart, hasten to your holy water font, and give your dear ones the benefit of the Church's prayers.

THE HOLY SOULS LONG FOR IT

Only in Purgatory can one understand how ardently a poor soul longs for holy water. If we desire to make a host of intercessors for ourselves, let us try to realize now some of their yearnings and never forget them at the holy water font. The holy souls nearest to heaven may need the sprinkling of only one drop to relieve their pining souls.

REMITTS VENIAL SINS

Because holy water is one of the Church's sacramentals, it remits venial sin. Keep your soul beautifully pure in God's sight by making the Sign of the Cross carefully while saying, "By this holy water and by the Precious Blood wash away all my sins O Lord."
