Holy Scripture and The Value of Silence

"When words are many, transgression is not lacking" (Prov 10:19). "He who guards his mouth preserves his life; he who opens wide his lips comes to ruin" (Prov 13:3). "Whoever uses too many words will be loathed" (Sir 20:8). "I tell you, on the day of judgement men will render account for every careless word they utter" (Mt. 12:36). "Make balances and scales for your words, and make a door and a bolt for your mouth. Beware lest you err with your tongue, lest you fall before him who lies in wait" (Sir 28:25-26).

Patron and Memorial Ad

As a way to honor our deceased loved one, we have set aside pages in our Festival Program book where you can purchase a line with their name on it or if you would like to place a small ad with their picture, you can also do that. It is a great way to pay homage to their memory. Forms are available in the Vestibule or contact John Mascardine at 330-534-5722.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note From Our Music Director

“When one door closes, another one opens.” We hear this all the time when something bad happens to us or when we think of some type of ending to a part of our life. In last week’s conclusion of Luke’s Gospel we heard Jesus tell the disciples right before He ascended, for them to wait for the promise of the Spirit. This was the same concept. As the door of Jesus’ time on earth was closing, the door of the Spirit was opening – and that’s what we celebrate this weekend: the promised Spirit has come and is now empowering the disciples to go and spread the message.

Today’s celebration of the birthday of the Church adds a special element in the Mass (with the exception of the Vigil Mass on Saturday) which is only required twice in the year: the sequence.

There are other days where it is optional but only on Easter and Pentecost is it required. The sequence can be done as a congregation, as a choir and congregation piece, or as a cantor or choir alone piece. This year, the Taize Veni Sancte Spiritus (“Come, Holy Spirit”), the Pentecost sequence text, is sung as a cantor / choir piece.

The Veni, Sancte Spiritus is different from the Veni, Creator Spiritus (“Come, Creator Spirit”), which is another Gregorian chant melody. This chant has become paraphrased into the hymn we know well: this weekend’s opening hymn, “Come, Holy Ghost.” One way chant melodies were sung in Church history was that of the Chant Mass versets. This was a common practice in the French Baroque period of the 1600-1700s. One verse would be sung by the choir, followed by an organ verse with not necessarily the same melody (although the melody is hidden in the first organ verse) typically highlighting the different sounds of the instrument. Some of the verses for the Veni, Creator chant are split as the prelude and postlude this weekend.

With this feast we celebrate the end of our fifty days of Easter. It is my hope that the music and our celebrations of Lent, the Triduum, and Easter have brought you to a deeper faith in Christ. While Easter ends, our mission only begins. This is the same mission that the disciples proclaimed after receiving power from the Holy Spirit – the Spirit we celebrate today.

The congregational hymns this weekend of course also center on our mission and the descent of the Holy Spirit. Let me conclude with the third verse of our closing hymn. The verse prays, “to us your varied gifts make known, teach us to speak, teach us to hear.” All we have celebrated since the coming of Christ on Christmas is culminated this weekend as the gifts of the Holy Spirit come upon us. As our Liturgical Year continues on, we will praise the Trinity and celebrate the Body and Blood of Christ then enjoy the rest of Ordinary Time, hearing the teachings of Christ and of His miracles. As we go forward, let us sing our praise to God, as we carry on His mission renewed by the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Postlude: Veni Creator Spiritus: #5 – Dialogue sur les grands Jeux – Nicolas de Grigny

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for the repose of soul, ANTHONY “TONY” FRANK, age 81, whose Mass of Christian burial was this past week.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER’S INTENTIONS FOR JUNE

The Mode of Life of Priests: That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.” John 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that here is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That those now discerning their vocations will be guided by the Holy Spirit to respond to the Lord’s call with open and generous hearts, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” Is your gift of the Holy Spirit the discernment of a vocation to the diaconate, priesthood or consecrated life? Call Fr. Christopher Lu9oni at 330-744-8451 or by e-mail: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.
