Melchizedek, priest of God Most High, offers bread and wine as a blessing upon Abram. Jesus fulfills this offering, giving us his own Body and Blood under the forms of bread and wine. Thus is our hunger satisfied in abundance as we make our pilgrim way to the heavenly banquet feast.

Patron and Memorial Ad

As a way to honor our deceased loved one, we have set aside pages in our Festival Program book where you can purchase a line with their name on it or if you would like to place a small ad with their picture, you can also do that. It is a great way to pay homage to their memory. Forms are available in the Vestibule or contact John Mascardine at 330-534-5722.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note

From Our Music Director

This Sunday's Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ parallels our celebration of Holy Thursday, but since Holy Week is often overshadowed by the Passion of the Lord, early Church leaders wanted another day to also celebrate the Lord's institution of the Eucharist to call extra attention to the mystery at the altar which we celebrate each Mass. After the noon Mass this weekend, we mirror the transfer of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday with our procession of the Eucharist with benediction.

While many composers of our day today continue to write hymns and pieces for our celebration of the sacraments, we cannot lose the texts of the ancient Church which got us to this point in the rich history of our faith. At the offertory this weekend, at our 5PM and 10AM Masses, a beautiful blend of modern music with a historical text is offered through Eriks Ešņvalds' choral work, O Salutaris Hostia. The text comes from the final two stanzas of a larger hymn written specifically for Corpus Christi Sunday by Saint Thomas Aquinas back in the 13th Century, while the music for this arrangement was written only a few years ago, in 2015. The text is associated with the ritual of benediction, as it states:

*O saving Victim, opening wide,
The gate of heaven to man below!
Our foes press on from every side;
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.
To Thy great name by endless praise,
Immortal Godhead, one in Three;
Oh, grant us endless length of days,
In our true native land with Thee. Amen*

We will sing the more well-known, traditional version of this at the conclusion of our Noon Mass and procession. Jesus, by the institution of the Holy Eucharist before His passion, was set to open the gates of heaven to us below. Parts of our other music this weekend also mirrors the Holy Thursday celebration. The hymn At That First Eucharist, which celebrates the institution of the Eucharist is the subject for the weekend's prelude. This prelude also echoes hints of the melody Adoro te Devote (Humbly We Adore Thee), also referencing the institution of the Eucharist. Our entrance hymn references the Gospel of the multiplication of the loaves (an analogy on the Eucharist), and the communion hymn Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence is a beloved text centering around Christ's coming to earth for our salvation and instituting the Eucharist. While we always take time to meditate on the importance of the Eucharist when we celebrate it each Mass, hopefully the joyous setting placed before us this weekend, where we are not overshadowed by Holy Week, we can especially focus on a central aspect of our faith.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JUNE

The Mode of Life of Priests: That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (Luke 9:17)

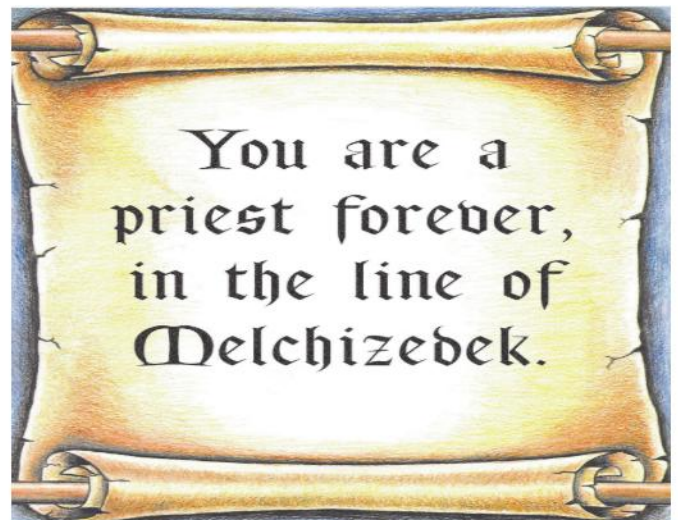

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when we share what we have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! God blesses all the gifts we offer and makes them wondrous.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That the Body and Blood of Christ will strengthen those being called to the priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life to persevere in their vocations and respond with confidence and joy,

We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Thank you for participating in the Catholic Relief Services' Rice Bowl 2019. Our donation for the Lenten Rice Bowl totaled: $1,715.08
