CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note

From Our Music Director

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me.

These words, taken from the offertory hymn this weekend, "The King of Love," denote the gentle character of Jesus. When He came down to earth, He didn't call upon the rich or well-off population, but rather those who needed Him most – those who were strayed from the true path. That's who He called and that's who followed Him. The first reading and gospel this weekend are accounts of people, strayed from the path, turning away from their normal lives and following God. The second reading compliments these two readings, by summing up what our following of Christ means: our love for each other. Our opening hymn, "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling" echoes these themes for it states that Jesus came down to earth out of love and compassion to dwell with us and we pray that He enters our trembling hearts. He asks us to give up our normal lives to follow Him as well, guided by the Spirit within us. That is what we pray and sing of this weekend as we open up our summer Sundays in Ordinary Time.

I want to take this opportunity to thank our Basilica choir for their time and dedication this past school and choir year. Other than special feasts, they are now enjoying their summer break. Our choir members include Beri Berardi, Loretta Bleggi, Tony and Katy Cassachia, Mark Izzo, Susan Izzo, Christine Langer, Josh Mansfield, Al Pecchia, Bryana Pecchia, Ellen Rose, Therese Rose, and Diane Vicarel.

Our choir season will again resume in September this year. Anyone who is interested in the opportunity to sing for our 10AM Sunday Masses are encouraged to see me after any weekend Mass or give me a call – my number is on the front of these bulletins. We will be happy to have you!

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JUNE

The Mode of Life of Priests: That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." (Galatians 5:13)

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free to that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That men and women called to proclaim the kingdom of God as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, will be given the strength to overcome every obstacle to their response through prayer and the practice of virtue, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

"Serve one another through love." Does a life of prayer and service as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life attract you? Call Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451 or by e-mail: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

Sunday Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kgs 19:16b, 19-21; Ps 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11; Gal 5:1, 13-18; Lk 9:51-62

Elisha is summoned to follow the prophet Elijah and to succeed him. Jesus insists that those who follow him must abandon all material or psychological securities, walking ever forward without looking back. It is the Lord alone who is to hold fast our lot. Paul distinguishes between true freedom and license.
