Sunday

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 66:10-14c; Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20;

Gal 6:14-18; Lk 10:1-12, 17-20 or Lk 10:1-9

Let us boast of nothing but the cross of Christ. Through it his grace and power are made known to his servants. Tremendous deeds shall be performed in his name: the reign of God is proclaimed, peace is given as gift, and the forces of sin are overcome.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note
From Our Music Director

Throughout the Church year in Ordinary Time, our basilica has had the tradition of singing the Ordinary of the Mass in Latin. These parts, the Kyrie (in Greek), the Gloria, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei, are the fundamental parts of the Mass and no matter which season of the year we are in, do not change.

Even with the directives of Mass to be celebrated in the vernacular language coming with The Second Vatican Council, Church leaders also directed that the faithful be able to sing these parts in Latin. The leaders recognized the importance of the Latin as well as Gregorian chant in the place in the Mass. In the document, "Sing to the Lord," it states:

The Church recognizes Gregorian chant as being especially suited to the Roman Liturgy. Therefore, other things being equal, it should be given pride of place in liturgical services. Gregorian chant is uniquely the Church's own music. Chant is a living connection with our forebears in the faith, the traditional music of the Roman rite, a sign of communion with the universal Church, a bond of unity across cultures, a means for diverse communities to participate together in song, and a summons to contemplative participation in the Liturgy.

The word contemplative is important here. To allow us to pay even more attention to the words of these texts, and some of the others we do in the Latin language (such as the Salve Regina we did last weekend), I have begun doing these without accompaniment in the organ. Chant done a capella has its own unique character and as we unite ourselves with the universal Church, we can sing these texts all the more complete.

This weekend, Christ calls us to spread our peace to others. Saint Francis wrote his prayer which echoed this sentiment which we sing at our offertory this weekend. Christ's message is given as He began His public ministry. His sending out of the seventy-two is mirrored in our call as Christian disciples. Our psalm for communion this weekend, "Go out to the world and teach all nations," was not meant just for these people, nor was it meant for just the twelve apostles. It rings to us as well.

Just as we are called to keep the tradition of Latin ordinary Mass parts, we are called to Christian discipleship and being people of peace. Let that theme of our weekend readings today allow us to go out to the world each day and proclaim our Christian call.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

The Integrity of Justice: That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...' Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charisms or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God's Church. Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That in response to our prayers for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and the consecrated life, there will be an increase in laborers for the Lord's Harvest, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." Many are you called to gather the harvest of the Church as a priest, deacon, brother or sister. Are you being encouraged to follow in this way? To find out more contact Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451 or by e-mail: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

THE ANNUAL ITALIAN CULTURE WEEK WAS A SUCCESS

Thanks to the many new volunteers we had this year. It was a great way to meet new people, share ideas and plan for next year. This year we added a look into the life of a very important Italian person, St. Francis of Assisi.

Did you know he was the one who initiated the tradition of the Live Nativity? There was no fast moving media to spread the word of the Birth of Christ. He wanted people to share in the wonder and gift of love that was given to us so many years ago. As you set up your Nativity each year remember who inspired the Tradition, St. Francis.

See everyone next June.....

Glad you are part of our Parish family. Have you updated your parish family registration? Time goes by quickly and the last thing to remember to do is update your information with your parish. We need birth dates, new contact information, has someone married and moved out?

Are you Searching, Discerning or Questioning of Becoming a Catholic? RCIA is for you.

Ever find yourself saying....

*I was Baptized but need to follow through with the other Initiation Sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation.

*I have this inner voice or desire calling me towards the Catholic Faith. What do I do?

*I'm planning on getting married and would like to join the Catholic Church.

I want to be prepared to be a Godparent or Sponsor if asked. What do I need to do?

SYMBOLS OF THE FOUR EVANGELISTS

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, the four Gospel writers, or “Evangelists” (from the Greek euangelion, meaning “Good News”), are traditionally represented in sacred art by four symbols: Matthew is represented by a human face, Mark by a Lion, Luke by an Ox, and John by an Eagle.

All saints have some symbolism, for instance Saint Peter is depicted with keys (the “keys of the kingdom of heaven” and Saint John Vianney is shown wearing a purple stole (because he was a priest and was known to hear confessions for several hours every day). The symbols of the Evangelists were taken from the four “Living Creatures” of the Book of Revelation.

Revelation 4:5-11 (NRSV)

"Coming from the throne are flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and in front of the throne burn seven flaming torches, which are the seven spirits of God; 4:6 and in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Around the throne, and on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind: 4:7 the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with a face like a human face, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside. Day and night without ceasing they sing, "Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come."

The human is associated with Matthew because of the focus in that gospel on the power of Jesus' Incarnation (his “becoming human”) and his Davidic heritage.

The lion is associated with Mark because Mark's gospel focuses on Christ as a powerful teacher and judge, and the lion was traditionally associated with divine power and royalty.

The ox is associated with Luke, because Luke's Jesus is relatively accessible, kind, and peaceful (in comparison with other gospel portrayals). The ox is a symbol of that 'everydayness' and useful strength.

The eagle is associated with John because John's gospel because it is the most 'mystical' of the four, and the eagle was thought to have the ability to look directly into the sun.
