Consider Natural Family Planning

July 21-27 is Natural Family Planning Awareness week and this year’s theme is “Love NATURALLY! Cooperating with God’s Design for Married love.” In the last fifty years there has been significant progress in modern methods of Natural Family Planning which are scientifically researched methods based on observation of the naturally occurring signs and symptoms of the fertile and infertile phases of a woman’s menstrual cycle. "Humility is the safeguard of chastity. In the matter of purity, there is no greater danger than not fearing the danger. For my part, when I find a man secure of himself and without fear, I give him up for lost. I am less alarmed for one who is tempted and who resists by avoiding the occasions, than for one who is not tempted and is not careful to avoid occasions. When a person put's himself in an occasion, saying, I shall not fall, it is an almost infallible sign that he will fall, and with great injury to his soul."

Sunday

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dt 30:10-14; Ps 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37 or Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 11; Col 1:15-20; Lk 10:25-37

The great commandment of love is not something "mysterious" or "remote." Indeed, it is "very near" to us. Yet how difficult it is to fulfill, being neighbor to whomever is in need. But if we seek God, we must "go and do the same", for we have been created in, for, and through Christ.

CRAIG'S CORNER
A Note
From Our Music Director

Our Sunday celebration of the Eucharist and the life and teachings of Jesus could never have been possible without the fiat of his mother, Mary. Because of her “yes” to God, we are able to receive her Son in the Sacraments. This weekend, we honor Mary in a special way, as the patroness of our basilica under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Marian devotions originated in the early Church and continue to expand through the centuries as more people turn to her powerful intercession, as is evident by her many apparitions. This is also true for Marian hymns, which flourish in many traditions, languages, and forms.

As we pray to, sing to, and celebrate Mary this weekend, may we turn toward her and ask for her help. As our beloved parish hymn Immacolata prays, though we are sinners, we are still her children and must ask for her intercession. I want to, in a special way, thank our instrumentalists, cantors, and our basilica choir joined with St. Anthony of Padua choir members for making our Masses extra special this weekend.

Instrumental Music Selections for July 13-14: Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Prelude: Improvisation on Salve Regina – Lynn Trapp
Postlude (5PM, 8AM, 10AM): Festive Trumpet Tune – David German

Dear Members of the Basilica Parish,

As I enter into the 34th year of priestly service to you as Pastor, I count the many blessings, favors and graces that have been bestowed on the parish family, through Our Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Of course over those years there have been crosses, hardships and stresses in the events of our daily lives. But nevertheless, our festival observance of is a time to give thanks for the blessings and favors granted during the course of our daily lives. With gratitude we should pray, “Thank you, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Pray for us.” Let us remember the value of wearing the brown scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel on our person and also the value of praying the Most Holy Rosary each day for our needs and necessities, and the need of the whole world. The daily Rosary is a most power weapon against the hostility, hatred and corruption present in our world today.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

The Integrity of Justice: That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” Luke 10:37
This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don’t like All without expecting anything in return.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That all those now discerning their vocation will be attentive in prayer and active in their response to Jesus the Eternal Word who calls them, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

“What must I do to inherit eternal life?” Faithfulness ton one’s vocation is essential to holiness. Is the vocation God invites you to follow to serve as a priest, deacon, sister or brother? Call Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451 or by e-mail: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

Sponsor of the Week:

Glad you are part of our Parish family.

Have you updated your family parish registration?
Time goes by quickly and the last thing to remember to do is update your information with your parish. We need birth dates, new / updated contact information, has someone married and moved out? Thanks to those who have responded.
