CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note

From Our Music Director

Our Gospel scene this weekend opens up for us a banquet. Jesus is with Martha and Mary. While Martha is doing all the hard work and serving, Mary is sitting next to Jesus and listening to His words. In the Genesis account in the first reading, Abraham and Sarah are making rolls and attending to strangers, which turns out to be the Lord. These accounts show different methods of service. Our theme of love in recent weeks culminates in manifestation of love through serving the Lord and our neighbors. Even though Martha is doing the serving at the banquet in the Gospel, Jesus tells them that being worried and anxious about many worldly things is not necessary – rather calls attention to Mary, serving the Lord, which brings about true happiness.

These accounts are summed up in the text of the first verse of the hymn “Make Us True Servants” which I played this weekend as an instrumental offertory. Since the hymn is not being sung, the text which sums up our readings is:

*Make us true servants to all those in need,
Filled with compassion in thought, word, and deed;
Loving our neighbor whatever the cost,
Feeding the hungry and finding the lost.*

Our setting at Mass, just as the Gospel this weekend, is a banquet. We come to the banquet of the altar to receive Jesus' body and blood. At the offertory each weekend, we bring forward our gifts to the altar. This is often done by members of the parish. We have a laudable practice at the basilica of bringing baskets for the poor or local organizations during the offertory procession at one of the weekend Masses which remains under the altar for the rest of the weekend. This is another form of service. These are combined in the offertory to show how we serve both God and neighbor. The text of the second verse of our opening hymn “Praise to the Lord” calls our attention to this action of offering our gifts at the altar. This hymn is also the subject of this weekend's postlude.

Let the music and readings of this weekend's Mass call our attention to the need to serve God and one another. As we prepare to celebrate our festival days this upcoming week and weekend, let us appreciate those we have around us and continue to serve one another while serving Christ and His Church.

Instrumental Music Selections for July 20-21: Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prelude: Cantabile – César Franck

Offertory: Prelude on Slane (“Make Us True Servants”)

Postlude: Processional on Lobe den Herren (“Praise to the Lord, The Almighty”) – Martin Shaw

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

The Integrity of Justice: That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” Colossians 1:25

We are called to evangelize—to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That like Mary of Bethany, all priests, deacons and brothers and sisters will listen to the Lord in prayer, so that they may remain faithful to live their vocation, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

“It is whom we proclaim.” As Christians we are all called to proclaim Christ. Is God inviting you to proclaim Him as a sister or brother, deacon or priest? For help in exploring your vocation contact Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451 or by email: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel “Gives Back to the Community” with a Donation to The Rich Center for Autism.

Renowned author, Adriana Trigiani, recently paid a visit to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Hall in Youngstown for a lecture and book signing, upon the release of her most recent novel, Tony’s Wife. Ms. Trigiani delighted a sold-out audience with her humor, wit and ingenuity.

In keeping with Our Lady of Mt. Carmel’s commitment to “Give Back to the Community,” $2,000 raised from the event was presented to The Paula and Anthony Rich Center for the Study and Treatment of Autism. The money will go towards the Center’s Capital Campaign; a fund to help renovate and upgrade facilities to better provide for current and future students.

The Rich Center for Autism is an externally funded unit of Youngstown State University whose primary mission is to improve the lives of individuals with autism through innovative educational programs that focus on increasing students’ skills in communication, socialization, academics and daily living.
