In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer. Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to ask...seek...knock". May our prayer open us to God's will, and so build up his strength within us. In baptism we have died with Christ, and have been raised to life with him.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note

From Our Music Director

The choice of the music this weekend is twofold, both to echo these sentiments from the Scriptures presented to us and to greet our parishioners and guests in celebration as many of us attend our parish festival. We gather praising Jesus our King whose reign is everlasting. He shows us His power and forgiveness daily. He teaches us how to pray this weekend in the Gospel, asking us to seek Him for all of our needs; as the psalm states for on the day we called for help, He answered us. He might not answer our prayers the way we want Him to, but it is His reign as king we celebrate each time we come to the altar. God reminds us in the first reading through the conversation with Abraham of his mercy. Abraham keeps persisting that God save Sodom and Gomorrah, even if just a few innocent people are present. God promises that He will save it if there are even a small number of innocent. We see the persistence of Abraham in the first reading and Jesus teaching His apostles about persistence in prayer in the Gospel. Our communion hymn, "Taste and See" comes from psalm 34. The third verse states, "you'll want for nothing if you ask....in God we need put all our trust." If we persist in prayer and trust in God's love and mercy, we will never be abandoned. Let us remember this each time we pray in the words Jesus taught us word-for-word in today's Gospel which we know of full well as the Our Father.

To latch onto our Italian parish culture, we thank God for all his blessings and graces in the offertory hymn, "Ti Ringrazio, O Mio Signore." Since our parish is dedicated to the Blessed Mother, our second communion hymn used at our festival Masses, praises her in a special way sung in our Italian heritage. She is the mother who bore Jesus, whom we pray to with persistence.

While we celebrate with friends and family this weekend on our parish grounds, may we never forget the true reason we are a community: that we are all here because of our faith in Christ Jesus. May God bless all of us as members of this great basilica during these festival days. Buona Festa, 2019!

Instrumental Music Selections for July 27-28: Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prelude (5PM, 8AM, 10AM): Sonata in G Major K. 328 – Domenico Scarlatti

Postlude (5PM, 8AM, 10AM): Toccata in Seven – John Rutter

"Chasity, or cleanness of heart, holds a glorious and distinguished place amount the virtues, because she, alone, enables man to see God; hence Truth itself said, 'Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.'" — Saint Augustine

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY

The Integrity of Justice: That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That the Holy Spirit will give inspiration and guidance to all those discerning their vocation in Christ, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

We welcome into the Catholic Family of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica, ENZO DOMINIC STACK, son of Steven Charles Stack & Joelle Elizabeth Bettura Stack, and VINCENZO MICHAEL WHORTEN, son of Vincent Peter Whorten & Nicole Michelle Frazzini Whorten, who were born again of water and the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Baptism.
