Prayer Petitions

It is in spirit of love, care, and support for one another that we invite you to place your prayer petitions into the Petition Box. The box and blank petition slips are available to you in the vestibule before each weekend Mass. The petitions are remembered during the Prayer of the Faithful and are brought forward during the Offertory Procession and placed at the foot of the Cross. At the conclusion of the Sunday Masses, the petitions are brought to the Little Flower Eucharistic Chapel where, throughout the week, members of the Apostolate for Perpetual Adoration unite their prayers with yours in the presence to our Eucharistic Lord. Let us unite our prayers with one another as we follow St. Paul's instruction to "pray without ceasing" and support one another through mutual prayer, solidarity, and love.

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the Parousia. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note

from our Music Director

When things seem bleak and dismal, you often hear people try to reassure others that things are always worse before they get better or some variant of that phrase. Right off the bat today in the first reading we hear the words from the Prophet Malachi that “the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble and the day that is coming will set them on fire.” YIKES. What a way to start off our Sunday readings! Jesus doesn’t start off the Gospel passage today much better. He tells us that “all that you see here—the days will come when there will be not left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.” He later continues telling the people that they will be seized and persecuted, handed over to prisons. He says “nation will rise against nation, kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes famines and plagues.” Again, yikes! (The postlude this weekend draws attention to this dark imagery today).

But neither of these readings ends in such a dark tone. The first reading concludes with, “But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays,” while the Gospel concludes with Jesus saying, “but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives.”

It is no surprise that we hear these readings this week as we come very close to the end of our Liturgical Year next weekend. Think of this weekend as the “things are always worse” and next weekend as the “before they get better.” While we have a glimpse into being consoled over all the darkness that has to happen before we can attain the kingdom, next weekend we crown Christ as king and celebrate that because of the cross and resurrection, if we persevere through the dark, we will attain paradise.

Our entrance psalm this weekend, Psalm 122 “I rejoiced when I heard them say let us go to the house of the Lord,” is a common psalm for the end of time. The text revolves around the “New Jerusalem,” the kingdom of God rather than looking to things on earth. In our basilica dedicated to the Blessed Mother, our parish hymn Immacolata in the first verse reminds us that it is Mary who guides the hearts of us on earth through whatever tempests life here on earth may bring and that if we call upon her, she is the true star of love.

So as we hear what starts off as quite dark and dismal words this weekend, we are reminded that our true kingdom is in heaven. Whatever natural disasters, wars or negative things happen in our lives, Christ reminds us that our perseverance will secure our heavenly quest. Let us pray that through Christ and His mother Mary that we ask them to guide us through these days on earth so we can find our ultimate goal one day in the kingdom of the New Jerusalem so we can rejoice when the angels say to us, let us go to the house of the Lord, alleluia!

Instrumental Music Selections for November 16-17:

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Postlude: Fugue in D Minor – Anton Bruckner

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER’S INTENTIONS FOR NOVEMBER

Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East.

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” (2 Thessalonians 3:9)

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don’t go around bragging about it. But through their actions and words, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and other people desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others have with our Catholic faith.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That prayer, hard work and generous service will prepare many men and women to answer the Lord’s call to follow Him as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

REMEMBER US LAST:

When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.
