Prayer Petitions

It is in spirit of love, care, and support for one another that we invite you to place your prayer petitions into the Petition Box. The box and blank petition slips are available to you in the vestibule before each weekend Mass. The petitions are remembered during the Prayer of the Faithful and are brought forward during the Offerory Procession and placed at the foot of the Cross. At the conclusion of the Sunday Masses, the petitions are brought to the Little Flower Eucharistic Chapel where, throughout the week, members of the Apostolate for Perpetual Adoration unite their prayers with yours in the presence to our Eucharistic Lord. Let us unite our prayers with one another as we follow St. Paul's instruction to "pray without ceasing" and support one another through mutual prayer, solidarity, and love.

The Meaning of the Candy Cane

Many years ago a candy maker wanted to make a candy that would symbolize the true meaning of Christmas—Jesus.

The hard candy was shaped like a “J” to represent that Jesus is our rock of all ages. The candy was made of white to stand for the pureness of Jesus. The red represents the blood that Jesus shed to save us from our sins.

So the next time you see a candy cane take a minute to remember the real meaning of Christmas.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A Note from our Music Director

Merriam Webster defines the word silence as “forbearance of speech and noise; absence of sound or noise.” Even Church leaders wrote about silence in their documents about music in the Mass. They write, Music arises out of silence and returns to silence. God is revealed both in the beauty of song and in the power of silence. The Sacred Liturgy has its rhythm of texts, actions, songs, and silence. Silence in the Liturgy allows the community to reflect on what it has heard and experienced, and to open its heart to the mystery celebrated. Ministers and pastoral musicians should take care that the rites unfold with the proper ebb and flow of sound and silence. The importance of silence in the Liturgy cannot be overemphasized.

A synonym for this word is stillness. In our Communion antiphon last weekend for the First Sunday of Advent we sang, “For you, O Lord, my soul in stillness waits.” This stillness and silence is a major component to the Advent season. Understand, though, that silence doesn’t mean sadness; we are to treat this season with joy!

In the secular world, the weeks leading up to Christmas are always busy and hectic – anything but silent and still. The Church in its rich history and Tradition gives us these four Sundays to separate ourselves from this hustle and bustle but rather, silently contemplate the coming of Christ. Our offertory hymn this weekend, “O Come, Divine Messiah,” also dwells on this facet of the season: “the world in silence waits the day, when hope shall sing its triumph, and sadness flee away.” John the Baptist, from whom we hear in the Gospel this weekend and in our opening hymn, is an important figure to keep in our minds this season. Connecting this theme, this weekend’s postlude is a setting of a German Advent chorale proclaiming of the coming of Christ, “Savior of the Nations, Come.”

Before and during Mass, especially during this Advent season, let us take advantage of these periods of silence so that we can prepare for the coming of Christ with the absence of the sounds and noise of the secular season we are bombarded with in the secular world.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER’S INTENTIONS FOR DECEMBER

The Future of the Very Young. That every country takes the measures necessary to prioritize the future of the very young, especially those who are suffering.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“Therefore, every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.” Matthew 3:10

Do you bear good fruit for Christ? Or do you spend your time, talent, and treasure constantly acquiring more toys, clutter, and junk. Our time, our talent, and our treasure are gifts that God has given us. What we do with them is our gift back to God. What gifts are you planning to give to the Lord during this upcoming Christmas season?

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

For all those chosen by Christ to “prepare the way of the Lord” in their hearts and in the hearts of His people as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

REMEMBER US LAST:

When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.

Peace is the theme of the Second Sunday of Advent. The first reading describes Christ the Messiah, who came from the line of Jesse, the father of King David. It also describes how to obtain peace – a peace that sustains us even in the midst of troubles: "The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him." Can you feel the Holy Spirit "resting" on you?

We experience true peace when we're in a restful relationship with God, i.e., when we're not struggling against him and his ways and his plans for us. Peace does not depend on bringing to an end the struggles we have with people or the problems we have with financial shortages or addictions or health, etc. We can work hard to accomplish peace in any trial, win the war, and still not be at peace.

Peace comes to us in the wisdom and understanding that we get from the Holy Spirit. Peace comes from following the Spirit's counsel. Peace comes from gaining knowledge of the truth, in total submission, obediently acting upon the truth.

In the Gospel reading, John the Baptist reminds us to "prepare the way of the Lord and make straight his paths." To receive the Spirit of God and his peace, we must prepare ourselves to meet Jesus in the Eucharist and in all the other ways that he comes to us. What kind of preparation produces peace? It's the work of honestly identifying our sins, happy that God is merciful, and straightening our crooked paths, because we realize that God's ways are really what's best for us.

Whatever separates us from God's peace, we must get rid of it. To do this, we have the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Penitential Rite at the beginning of every Mass. Christ equips us for the journey into true peace!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What turmoil is going on in your life? What has stolen your peace?
2. Where is Jesus? What obstacles (e.g., unforgiveness or resentment) do you need to repent of to see him and feel his peace?
3. What methods do you use to settle down and rest in the Spirit of Jesus when turmoil is spinning around you? What kind of prayer helps? Do you go on retreat or confide in a spiritual director? What are some other ideas?

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

When we serve God in church, we learn how to serve God
outside of church;

by helping people who are in need,
by taking care of each other and the earth that we live on,
by loving people
that no one else loves.

That's how we really serve God.

LivingwithChrist Sunday Missal and Sunday Missal for Young Catholics have arrived. Please feel free to take one for your family so you can reflect on the Sunday readings prior to Mass. The Missal for young Catholic has family projects and activities for you to do as a family. They are good until November 2020.

First Reconciliation & Communion Preparation

Catholic School Families and Parish Families: if your child is 7 yrs old or in the 2nd grade and is ready to prepare for Reconciliation and Communion please call to register them. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel needs to know where your child will be preparing and receiving. Preparation will begin following Thanksgiving. Thank you for your cooperation. If you missed the parent meeting please call Therese. We begin our gatherings in January.
