The box and blank petition slips are available to you in the vestibule before each weekend Mass. The petitions are remembered during the Prayer of the Faithful and are brought forward during the Offertory Procession and placed at the foot of the Cross. At the conclusion of the Sunday Masses, the petitions are brought to the Little Flower Eucharistic Chapel where, throughout the week, members of the Apostolate for Perpetual Adoration unite their prayers with yours in the presence to our Eucharistic Lord. Let us unite our prayers with one another as we follow St. Paul's instruction to "pray without ceasing" and support one another through mutual prayer, solidarity, and love.

Call the rectory at 330-743-4144, Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.—3 p.m. And we will send you a registration form. Families who have members of our church staying with them who are shut-ins or who are in nursing homes should include them as members of their household. FOR YOUR INFORMATION Cold and Flu Season Reminder

During the cold and flu season please remember the following helpful and healthy reminders while at Mass:

General Considerations:

Cover your nose and mouth with a tissue when you cough or sneeze or cough/sneeze into your elbow.

Wash your hands with soap and water frequently. Alcohol based hand cleaners are also effective.

Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth.

Sign of Peace:

Do not be offended if someone chooses not to shake your hand at the sign of peace. If you are ill (and present at Mass, the appropriate response to someone extending a sign of peace might be to bow to them and say, "Peace be with you," to avoid contact while sick.

Reception of Holy Communion:

While it is the teaching of the Church that the fullness of the Body and Blood of Christ is contained in the Holy Eucharist under the form of the host that is distributed at Mass, the Church has also extended the privilege to receive Holy Communion under the form of wine. However, if you are feeling ill, please consider receiving Holy Communion in the hand and refrain from receiving the Precious Blood until you are returned to good health.

NOTE:

Office Closed on New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.
Office will reopen on January 2, 2020.

CRAIG'S CORNER
A Note
from our Music Director

As the season of Advent has blossomed into Christmas this week, I wanted to take the opportunity as your director of music to offer my sincere gratitude to all of those who played a role in making Christmas Vigil and Day Masses a wonderful celebration of our Lord's nativity. Thank you especially to our basilica choir of Beri Berardi, Loretta Bleggi, Scott Cross, Susan Izzo, Christine Langer, Josh Mansfield, Nicholas Mattiussi, Al Pecchia, Bryana Pecchia, Ellen Rose, and Diane Vicarel. I would also like to thank our instrumentalists Tom Miller on flute, Nicholas Mattiussi and John Ford on trumpet, Kyle Zimmerman, and Breanna Johnson on trombone who all played a role in some or all of our Christmas Masses.

This weekend's celebration of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph which always falls on the Sunday within the octave of our Christmas solemnity. This octave acts as a continuation of our Christmas Day Masses, so we get to sing our favorite Christmas hymns once again this weekend.

The responsorial psalm this weekend, Psalm 128 "Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways" is the most common psalm for a wedding Mass. When I plan wedding Masses with couples preparing to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage, I give this option first for the psalm and then review other examples. Most often, the couple chooses this option because its verses call specific attention to the blessing of the family: "Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home; your children like olive plants around your table. May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life. May you see your children's children."

We hear this psalm this weekend as our readings also center on the family on this feast of the Holy Family. As I offer catechesis to the couples preparing for marriage that this psalm is used for this weekend of the Church Year and that they are now to model their lives after that of the Holy Family. Let us take that with us this week as we go forth amidst the celebrations with our own families between Christmas and New Year's Day that we are always to model our lives after that of Jesus' family, humble like that of Mary and Joseph and of course in the light of our newborn Savior, Christ Jesus our Lord.

Instrumental Music Selections for December 28-29: Feast of the Holy Family

Prelude: Hymn and Variations 1 & 3 from Variations on "Adeste Fideles" – Marcel Dupré

Postlude: Fugue, Vivace and Finale from Variations on "Adeste Fideles" – Marcel Dupré

Feast of the Holy Family—December 29, 2019

Even though it was not easy, Joseph did what he needed to do to protect his family and follow the Father's will. Doing the Father's will may not always be easy or what we expected to do, but it will always bring us happiness and peace. Is God calling you to serve as a religious, deacon or priest so as to bring his family to peace and happiness? If this is your calling, find out more by contacting Fr. Christopher Luoni @ 330-744-8451, or at: cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

DAILY OFFERING PRAYER

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR DECEMBER

The Future of the Very Young. That every country takes the measures necessary to prioritize the future of the very young, especially those who are suffering.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

"Wives, be subordinate to your husbands...Husbands, love your wives...Children, obey your parents in everything...Fathers, do not provoke your children..." (Colossians 3:18-21)

Pope Francis said that families, through their life of prayer and love, become "schools of true human growth." Being credible witnesses of Christian love, especially that of family members, exerts the most positive influence on our children. We are all children of God, Let us pray and love each other as God, Our Father, does for us.

INTERCESSION FOR VOCATIONS:

That like Joseph, we will have the courage to do the will of the Father and follow where he leads us, especially if it is to serve as a deacon, religious brother or sister or a priest,
We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

REMEMBER US LAST:

When you are preparing your will and estate plan remember those closest to you...spouse, family members and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mount Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-744-8451, ext. 325 for information.
