Let us unite our prayers with one another as we follow St. Paul’s instruction to “pray without ceasing” and support one another through mutual prayer, solidarity, and love.

CRAIG'S CORNER
A Note
from our Music Director

Fresh off the Christmas and Advent seasons, our Gospel this weekend almost sounds like what we heard about a month ago in preparation for Christmas. John the Baptist was an important figure in the last month of our Liturgical Calendar and he has another important role today. Last week I referred to the different types of epiphanies or manifestations of Christ. This weekend, as we open up our winter Sundays of Ordinary Time, we, in a way, almost continue the theme of Advent and Christmas.

Today John presents Christ to us in the Gospel. As Jesus comes toward him, he acclaims that this is the reason he has been baptizing with water. This now is the Lamb of God. We heard it in the Gospel last weekend at Jesus' baptism and again today that the Spirit came upon Christ like a dove marking His significance – that dove signifying the Holy Spirit (connecting the Gospel to this weekend's opening hymn) which this new baptism will be from: not only water but water and the spirit.

Our music this weekend reflects the role of the Spirit in our lives, as well as the light of Christ we have all received at Christmas. In the first reading, Isaiah refers to being called by God from the womb to become a light (connecting the first reading to the offertory hymn) to all the nations. Paul recalls his calling to be an apostle of Jesus in the second reading. We come this weekend, as always, called to the supper of the Lamb (connecting the Gospel to our communion hymn) – the Lamb of God which John the Baptist reveals to us today. The responsorial psalm reminds us, too, that we are called by the Lord, the Lamb of God, to do His will too and carry on the mission of the Gospel.

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month. Promotion of World Peace. We pray that Christians, followers of other religions, and all people of goodwill may promote peace and justice in the world.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” Isaiah 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and generously share them with others.

In every Mass, the presiding priest says the words of John the Baptist that are quoted in today's Gospel message: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." To which we reply: "Lord, I am not worthy ... but say the word and my soul shall be healed."

This healing began at the beginning of Mass in the Penitential Rite if we had a sincere attitude of repentance. With this healing, we receive Jesus in all of his humanity and divinity. With this healing, we leave church ready to be like John the Baptist, testifying by word and by the way we live that "now I have seen that Jesus is the Son of God."

Is Mass that kind of experience for you?

All parts of the Mass contribute to this. Jesus is present in the community as we unite in song. Jesus is present in the Penitential Rite, listening to our sincerity. Jesus is present in the Liturgy of the Word, broken open like bread to nourish our faith, and when the homily is poor or absent, his Spirit preaches to us privately (straying thoughts are often an action of God). And Jesus is present in all the prayers: the ones we offer and those of the clergy.

All of Mass is meant to transform us, prepare us, and send us out from church as witnesses of the true presence of Christ in our world. Like John the Baptist, we can say: "I did not know him." In other words: "I saw only bread and wine" and "I was sinful and didn't realize the damage I had done" and "I was wounded and did not know how to be healed."

And like John we can add: "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God. The Holy Spirit revealed to me the presence of my Savior in the Eucharist. The Holy Spirit gently exposed my sinfulness and gave me help in overcoming them. The Holy Spirit leads me to the resources that are healing my wounds."

Reflect & Discuss:

† What is the experience of Mass like for you?

† If you could attend Mass daily, would you? If not, why not? If it's a scheduling problem, will you ask Jesus to change your schedule? If it's a priority problem, will you ask the Holy Spirit to increase in you a desire to sit in the true Eucharistic presence of your Savior?

† Describe a time when you became more aware of Jesus in the Mass.

† Prior to this development, what distracted you from noticing his presence? What changed? Why? How?
