FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT TODAY'S FOCUS: CALLED TO BE TRUE

A new Lent is a new opportunity to examine our relationship with God and to follow the example of Jesus, who remained true to the end.

As you and I move into this season of Lent, what does it mean for us to true to God? The world around us may tempt us to be soft: lies and posturing and deceit proliferate in our culture and even in our Church. Lent is the season to grow more holy, our time to go to the desert. This is our ascetic season. This is our opportunity to strip away the fat that weighs down our spiritual and moral life.

Genesis 2: 7-9; 3: 1-7
Romans 5: 12-19 or 5: 12, 17-19
Psalm 51: 3a
Matthew 4: 1-11

Lord, sometimes we squirm away from obedience. You call us to look you straight in the eye and remain steadfast in following you, no matter the cost. But sometimes it is more comfortable to go the softer way. When we are tempted to disregard what our conscience tells us is right, fill us with the strength to stand fast. As we enter into this Lenten season, strip away the fat that encases our spiritual and moral life. Give us the grace to follow you more purely.
