The Road to Emmaus

Luke 24:13-35

"Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scripture to us?"

Monsignor's Message

for the 3rd Sunday of Eastertide

The Gospel today is the well know journey of two disciples of Jesus as they walked about seven miles from Jerusalem to the little town of Emmaus. Because the two were not expecting the Crucifixion, let alone the news that He rose from the dead, the two were confused and somewhat depressed because they thought Jesus would be the number one political leader to liberate Israel from the Roman Rule over their country.

On the road to Emmaus Jesus appears and as he opens the Holy Scriptures to them and celebrates the Holy Eucharist, their hearts were burning. The two knew that He is Risen and right before them—not a political liberator but the Son of God who save us and the whole world from darkness, sin and death and offers to us His grace, love, peace and eternal life.

In these recent days of being home bound to quell the coronavirus, rather than taking a seven mile walk which is not practical in time of quarantine, take instead a journey within you to your soul and heart. Yes, within you He is present by virtue of the grace of your Baptism and Confirmation. Read a passage of the Holy Scripture and make your Spiritual Communion. Journey within and know that the once dead and now Risen Lord is the Lord of your life!

The Apostolate for Perpetual Adoration

Due to the serious health alerts concerning the Coronavirus, there will be no public or private access to the Basilica for private Adoration or prayer until the Stay at Home order is gradually lifted by the state of Ohio.

Mary, Help of the Sick, pray for us.

If interested in signing up as an Adorer after the Stay at Home order see "An Invitation" for details.

Personal Prayer Petitions

It is in spirit of love, care, and support for one another that we invite you to place your prayer petitions into the Petition Box. The box and blank petition slips are available to you in the vestibule before each weekend Mass. The petitions are remembered during the Prayer of the Faithful and are brought forward during the Offertory Procession and placed at the foot of the Cross. At the conclusion of the Sunday Masses, the petitions are brought to the Little Flower Eucharistic Chapel where, throughout the week, members of the Apostolate for Perpetual Adoration unite their prayers with yours in the presence to our Eucharistic Lord. Let us unite our prayers with one another as we follow St. Paul's instruction to "pray without ceasing" and support one another through mutual prayer, solidarity, and love.

Until we gather again you can make your own family petition box.

“What We Have Been Doing While Staying at Home”

Miss seeing everyone? Wondering what everyone has been doing to stay busy? How are you staying in touch? Who has ventured into the technology age of staying in touch? Better yet how have parents aka teachers held up with the “new way of doing...”

We are looking at ways to stay in touch. We would love for you to share your ideas, activities and whatever else you may have been doing to stay busy.

Email them to Therese or Melissa. Keep in mind we would like to post them on the website so others can see.

John 6:60-69

The two disciples of today's Gospel reading did not recognize Jesus until after they heard him explain the scriptures and then broke bread with him. It was a two-part process. First, while listening to him teach about the scriptures, only their hearts recognized him. ("Were not our hearts burning within us?") Their eyes didn't see his true identity until Jesus shared a meal with them, raised the bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them to eat.

When we celebrate Mass today, we're on a similar journey with Jesus. First, we have the Liturgy of the Word, during which we hear the scriptures and a homily that explains them. This is a time of opening our hearts to him.

A well-trained reader will speak the words of scripture with meaning and emphasis so that our hearts can recognize God in the words. A well-trained priest or deacon will set our hearts on fire as if Jesus himself were teaching us the meaning of the scriptures. But even when the reader or homilist does a poor job, we can open our hearts to hear Jesus speaking to us directly.

Then we move into the Liturgy of the Eucharist. When the presiding priest consecrates the bread and wine, it is Jesus himself who is actually doing it, using the priest's hands and vocal chords. Jesus is doing for us what he did for those two disciples at Emmaus.

If we have opened our hearts to Jesus during the first part of Mass, and if we are still paying attention, we see more than a piece of bread and a chalice of wine. We see Jesus. We recognize him with our hearts and our heads. We know beyond all doubt that the resurrected Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what area(s) of your life does Jesus seem to be absent? How can the Mass help you recognize Jesus and feel his closeness?
2. What else can you do to discover the presence of Jesus when you are not able to sense his nearness?
3. When did you first discover that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist? What helped you with that discovery?
4. How do you know that the bread and wine change into the substance of Jesus while retaining their original form (which is called "transubstantiation")?
5. How easy is it for you to recognize Jesus in the Eucharist? Why?

O Mary,
you always shine on our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you,
Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.
You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy

and to feasting
after this time of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross,
to the joy of the resurrection.
Amen.
