Monsignor's Message for the 4th Sunday of Easter

My good children,

This Fourth Sunday of the Easter Season is often called Good Shepherd Sunday. The Shepherd uses his shepherd's staff to corral the sheep into the fenced in space after grazing in the fields for a good night's rest. The Shepherd protects his flock whether inside the fence or out in the field. As stated in the Gospel of John, the sheep know the voice of the Shepherd and the shepherd knows how the sheep will respond to his voice.

With absolute Faith in the Risen Christ the Good Shepherd. As the Psalm states, "Though I walk in the valley darkness, I fear no evil for you are at my side." He will prevail for He is the Good Shepherd on behalf of all who believe and follow Him. And of course may your words, actions, your love for the other person, your love of God show that you know the Shepherd; that you know, Christ the Good Shepherd.

During the Governor's order for us to stay home, be quarantined, you may have noticed rather quickly how your parents needed to show without hesitation the role of a good shepherd in your home, so that each member of the family have food, drink, clean clothing, hygiene, study, prayer, basic exercise, and rest necessary to wage a winning war against the corona virus. Your parents took charge and you cooperated with them to the best of your ability, with the help of God.

Monsignor Michael Cariglio, Jr

During this time of the Ohio stay at home order, the following persons have passed away.

In your charity please remember the repose of the souls of: Dorothy Pizzuto, Roseann Roberts, Nicholas Tisone, Mario DiLullo, Marianne Barker.

Their funeral rites have been prayed in accord with the Directives of the State of Ohio to promote a safe environment. This of course has been difficult for the loved ones in time of loss. Our hearts go out to them.

I have remembered the repose of their souls during the daily Masses. Each family will have a special Mass for their deceased loved ones when they are able to gather as family and friends. May they rest in the Peace of the Lord, forever in Peace.

Ps 98:1-4

John 14:7-14

Are you at an impasse in your spiritual growth or emotional healing or a difficult relationship? Do you need a break-through? Do you feel stuck behind a fence that's keeping you on the outside of peace, joy, satisfaction, or healing?

This Sunday's Gospel reading tells us that Jesus is the gate in that fence. He helps us reach the heavenly side of the gate, outside the realm of earthly restrictions — not only when we die and enter eternal life, but also here and now in our earthly life, so that we might always "have life and have it more abundantly."

When our path seems blocked, we can only make progress by letting Jesus shepherd us around and through and over the obstacles. If people shut a door on something that God wants us to do, Jesus is still our open gate and no one can close him out of our lives. He will lead us into a new opportunity for accomplishing the plans of God. If he's given us a frustrated holy desire or a passion for which there seems to be no outlet, instead of complaining or quitting, we must look at Jesus and see him as a gate that opens into a new direction or location.

Remember, however, that until we get all the way through this gate, we must stick close to him like dumb sheep. There's a journey to take before we can reach the other side of the fence. The thief that comes to steal and slaughter can only reach us when we stray away from Jesus and we take our eyes off of him.

Despair and worry are two common thieves, robbing us of peace, joy, satisfaction, and healing. But they're not as powerful as they pretend to be. We defeat them easily by remembering that they do not speak the full truth. The truth is: Jesus is our Good Shepherd safely guiding us into a life of abundant victory!

Reflect & Discuss

1. What breakthrough are you hoping for? What's frustrating you and seems hopeless? What's causing you to think that a problem you're facing might lead to disaster and destruction?
2. What will you do this week to follow Jesus more closely so that you can get through this with more peace?
3. Share the story of a time when you experienced obstacles and Jesus provided a breakthrough that led to victory.
