For the blessings of this and all our days, we thank you, gracious God. Accept, we pray, not just this money but also our lives freely offered in gratitude for all you have done for us. Use them both, in this place wherever you might take us. Amen

I have decided to stick with love
Hate is too great a burden to bear.

Martin Luther King, Jr.

FOURTEEN SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: BURDENS BORNE BY LOVE

Love can make our burdens lighter. When we share the burdens of life with Christ in our fellow disciples, burdens are easier to bear.

I see a woman caring for her husband in a hospital bed in her living room. Her husband died in that bed while they were saying the rosary. I see a young mother rocking, feeding, playing and interacting with her 6-month old son-all day and all night. Babies are hard work. So why are some yokes easier to bear? There is great love in both these examples. We will do difficult things for love. Love makes the burden light.

Zechariah 9: 9-10
Psalm 145: 1
Romans 8: 9, 11-13
Matthew 11: 25-30

Jesus, you ask us to be childlike, to trust you to carry our burdens. Love has lifted us up. Sin has torn us down. You know that we have experienced both. Lord, give us the strength this day to do all that we can today for whomever you put in our path. We are willing to work hard to make a difference in this world, but you are going to have to carry it, for we cannot. Come, Savior of the world, come!

Dear God,

We thank you for the beautiful blessings you have bestowed on us. Guide us in being good stewards of these gifts. Let us care for all of your beautiful creation, from the redwood forests to the gulfstream waters. Make us instruments of your peace in order to put an end to rockets' red glare and bombs bursting in air.

Help us to love and care for all of our neighbors-locally and globally-so that we might be truly crowned with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

Amen
