For the blessings of this and all our days, we thank you, gracious God. Accept, we pray, not just this money but also our lives freely offered in gratitude for all you have done for us. Use them both, in this place wherever you might take us. Amen

Everything you sow today will be reaped in your harvest tomorrow.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: SOWING SEED-ATTENTIVELY

Anyone who plants or grows anything knows how much is dependent on the quality of the soil. Let us-sowers of the seed of God's word-be attentive to the soil!

Jesus describes three obstacles to doing the will of God: the evil one, who prevents the word from being truly heard; the flesh, that part of the human person that will abandon God's will if it means struggle or trouble; and the world, those aspects of human society that are opposed to God, yet appealing to the flesh. The kingdom of God, in which the will of God is known and lived, is for those who are willing to sacrifice to enter it. This has been Jesus' message from the beginning.

Isaiah 55: 10-11

Luke 8: 8

Romans 8: 18-23

Matthew 13: 1-23 or 13: 1-9

Lord, you give us rain from heaven to water the earth. Your showers keep the earth soft. You want your word to bear fruit; you want it to achieve what you sent it for. We, in turn, want to serve you and your Word. Teach us what we need to know so that the words that we say will be living and effective. Holy Spirit, come to the aid of our weakness so that we bear fruit that will last.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS OUR

WHAT BLESSINGS COME FROM SOCIAL DISTANCING?

Social Distancing Helps Us Slow Down: No sports, no after-school clubs, no driving to meetings. One activity that is encouraged is enjoying the outdoors. People now have time to enjoy nature and breath a prayer of worship to God.

Social Distancing Forces Us to Spend Time with Family: It provides a unique opportunity to connect with those that live in their home.

Social Distancing Unites Us with the World: This pandemic has affected not just one region, or one country, but the world. The world for once is united against one foe. We are all human, all created and loved by God, and not as different, as we may think.

Social Distancing Reminds Us What Really Matters: We're limited to our families and our necessities. We're reminded how precious life is, and how many things we can truly do without.

Social Distancing Helps Us to Appreciate Those Who Can't Social Distance. Doctors and nurses on the front lines deserve our respect and gratitude. They are making great sacrifices to save lives. However, new heroes have also arisen. Grocery store clerks, factory workers, and even Amazon distributors. Perhaps when this is over, we'll have more compassion.

Social Distancing Gives Us an Opportunity to Witness: In this uncertain time, how will we as Christians react? Will we panic? We need to remain calm and put our trust in God? Will we show compassion, and help those in need? Will we put others before ourselves?>

COVID-19 has caused some terrible things. However, we can see that God continues to pour out blessings in all things if we
