HEALING PRAYER OF SURRENDER

Dear Lord Jesus, it is my will to surrender to you everything that I am and everything that I'm striving to be. I open the deepest recesses of my heart and invite your Holy Spirit to dwell inside of me.

I offer you my life, heart, mind, body, soul, spirit, all my hopes, plans, and dreams. I surrender my past, present and future problems. I release everything into your compassionate care. Please speak to me clearly, Lord. Open my ears to hear your voice. Open my heart to commune with you more deeply. Open the doors that need to be opened and close the doors that need to be closed. Please set my feet upon the straight and narrow road that leads to everlasting life. Amen

Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020

Due to the stay home orders and the many shut downs, the Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020 is notably behind in reaching the goal. REGISTRATION: Members of the parish should be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mt. Carmel envelopes, please call the rectory Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.—2:00 p.m. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory at 330-743-4144.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A note from our music director

Last week we heard of Solomon's prayer for wisdom and understanding and Jesus' parables about His kingdom being our real treasure in life. Monsignor Cariglio showed us the chalice as a gift from his parents for his ordination to the priesthood almost fifty years ago and mentioned how the true treasure of Christ is found there: where the sacrifice of Christ is truly present in the Eucharist. The Eucharist should be our treasure as well. This weekend, Christ takes two loaves of bread and multiplies it in front of the crowds who have come to hear Him and see Him. He looks up to heaven, says the blessing and breaks the bread like He eventually will do at the Last Supper, and what we do every time we come to the altar at Mass.

Our music this weekend signifies the importance of the Eucharist in our lives as Catholics. The prelude and offertory are based on a Eucharistic Gregorian Chant melody "Adoro te Devote," Humbly We Adore Thee, often heard on Holy Thursday, the day the Church celebrates the institution of the Eucharist. The text of the hymn comes from St. Thomas Aquinas. The verse that stands out to me for this weekend especially reads:

*Jesus, Lord, we thank thee for this wondrous bread;
In our land thou dwellest, by thee we are fed.
We who share this mystery in thee are made one;
Ev'ry act we offer thee in thy name is done.*

Our opening hymn (and subject of the postlude this weekend), "God's Holy Mountain We Ascend" directly states the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves in the verses. The mountain here is where he performs the miracle, but the mountain of Calvary is where the sacrifice instituted in the Eucharist is fulfilled. Our communion hymn blends all of these themes from both this and last weekend together. "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All" whose text captures the prayer of those who seek Christ first and foremost while understanding and partaking of the Sacrament of the Eucharist wholeheartedly knowing Christ is the true bread which fills us for eternal life.

Instrumental Music Selections for August 1-2:

Offertory: Adoro te Devote – Gerald Near

This Sunday's readings make me thirsty and hungry! Can we go out to dinner after Mass?

As we say in the responsorial Psalm, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." Yet, despite knowing this, we think we never have enough. We're not content with what we have.

Even when things go well, we're not fully satisfied. We want more. Especially in relationships. We're starving for more affection, we crave more attention, our guts grumble over not getting enough concern and support and approval from those who should give it to us.

Every person in our lives has been called by God to be a provider of his love for us. But no one loves us perfectly, and some totally reject this calling. If because of this we live in a state of frustration and anger or cynicism or self-protective isolationism, we're always hungry.

When we choose instead to forgive the imperfect people and turn to Jesus, he miraculously multiplies a little into a lot. By keeping our eyes on Jesus rather than on those who fail to love us fully, his love for us fills our hearts to overflowing.

Feeling dissatisfied is a sign that Jesus is trying to get our attention; there's something he wants to give us. But how is he going to give us what we need if we can't see him and feel touched by him?

To feel satisfied by an invisible God, we need to stay closely connected to him in prayer and in Christian community. We have to pay attention to what he's doing and through whom he's chosen to do it. That means getting more involved and expecting the unexpected!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What are you hungry for? Who's not giving you enough of what you need?
2. How can you find other ways of receiving this?
3. Describe a time when God met your needs in an unexpected way. From whom did you expect to get it, and how did it happen that you received it another way?
4. Did you receive more – or less – than what you had wanted? Was it satisfying?
