HEALING PRAYER OF SURRENDER

Dear Lord Jesus, it is my will to surrender to you everything that I am and everything that I'm striving to be. I open the deepest recesses of my heart and invite your Holy Spirit to dwell inside of me.

I offer you my life, heart, mind, body, soul, spirit, all my hopes, plans, and dreams. I surrender my past, present and future problems. I release everything into your compassionate care. Please speak to me clearly, Lord. Open my ears to hear your voice. Open my heart to commune with you more deeply. Open the doors that need to be opened and close the doors that need to be closed. Please set my feet upon the straight and narrow road that leads to everlasting life. Amen

CRAIG'S CORNER

A note from our music director

The following texts are taken from US Bishops' documents Sing to the Lord, The General Instruction of the Roman Missal and Sacrosanctum concilium, Church documents which myself and all Liturgical leaders study. I like to share some of these texts at times with you all so you can dive into the reason we worship each week-end and what our roles are as the faithful. We are more than simply listeners of God's Word—we must also actively engage ourselves in the Tradition of the Mass. Here are some key points about us as the assembly:

"In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people whom God has made his own, a royal priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the spotless Victim not only through the hands of the priest but also together with him, and so that they may learn to offer themselves."

This is the basis for the 'full, conscious and active participation' of the faithful demanded by the very nature of the Liturgy. Because the gathered liturgical assembly forms one body, each of its members must shun any appearance of individualism or division, keeping before their eyes that they have only one Father in heaven and accordingly are all brothers and sisters to each other.'

Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020

Due to the stay home orders and the many shut downs, the Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020 is notably behind in reaching the goal. Since the appeal reaches out the genuinely needy of the Valley, please respond and make your annual contribution. God's choicest blessing. Send to Basilica office at your earliest convenience.

OUTDOOR MASS AT THE BASILICA OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

The 11 a.m. Sunday Mass will be offered outdoors at the Shrine of St. Anthony; whenever there are optimal weather conditions-between 68 and 78 Fahrenheit, and near zero chance of rain. Please check the weather and if possible bring a light lawn chair. Use social distancing on the lawn area. Families are together. The Basilica will also provide seating. Any questions e-mail the Minister of Music Craig Ziobert who is also a meteorologist! Thank you for your patience in this time of the necessity o assure the health safety of the Faith community. TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*LORD,
your love is eternal;
do not forsake
the work of your hands.*

INTERCESSION:

That Trusting in Christ's words to Peter, all those called to follow the Lord as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life will recognize the gift of their call and follow Him faithfully,

We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God.” Is God calling you to serve His Son in the priesthood? Call Father Scott Kopp at 330-744-8451.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Are you worthy to share your gifts with Christ and his people? We all know that Peter ultimately denied knowing Christ three times, but he was still given a monumental task of carrying Christ's church on his shoulders, Peter made mistakes like we all do, and like Peter, we are also called upon to give life to the Church through sharing of our unique gifts.

Loving Memory

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for repose of, CARMELA BERONJA, age 91, whose Mass of Christian burial was this past week. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 22:19-23; Ps 138:1-2, 2-3, 6, 8;
Rom 11:33-36; Mt 16:13-20

As Eliakim is given authority as master of the palace, so does Jesus confer upon Peter authority to bind and loose. To Jesus, who promised to be with his Church for all time, be glory for ever and ever.

The Beautiful Hands of a Priest

We need them in life's early morning,

We need them again at its close;

We feel their warm clasp of true

Friendship, we seek them when

Tasting life's woes.

At the altar each day we beheld them,

And the hands of a king on his throne

Are not equal to them in their

Greatness; their dignity stands all

Alone;

And when we are tempted and wander

To pathways of shame and of sin,

It's the hand of a priest will absolve

Us-not once, but again and again;

And when we are taking life's partner,

Other hands may prepare us a feast,

Both the hand that will bless and unite

Us is the beautiful hand of a priest.

God bless them and keep them all holy

For the Host which their fingers caress; When can a poor sinner do better than

To ask Him to guide thee and bless?

When the hour of death comes upon us

May our courage and strength be

Increased

By seeing raised over us in blessing the Beautiful hands of a priest!

This Sunday's readings all speak of the need to stand up for what is holy and right and true in a way that invites others to turn away from sin. If we don't, we indirectly play a part in the sins he or she commits, and we will be held accountable (see the first reading).

If we do take a stand against sin but without compassion and mercy and unconditional love, that too is a sin (the second reading).

Jesus shows us in the Gospel reading that in our efforts to stop a fellow Christian from sinning, it's important to rely on our Christian community for advocacy and prayer support.

How?

First, we speak to the sinner. When we know that someone is harming himself and others (all sins are harmful even when we can't see the harm), if we don't try to impart this knowledge to him or her at least once, our silence is unloving and uncaring.

Once we've shared the truth, even if the sinner does not change, we're free of any guilt. But we must not stop trying, and so we take one or two others with us in a stronger effort to help the sinner understand and repent.

And if that fails, we try again with still more backing.

When every attempt to help someone has failed, only then do we quit. In reality, it's not us who's walking away. The sinner is the one who has chosen the path of separation. However, remember how Jesus treated the Gentiles and tax collectors (i.e., the outsiders, the separated ones): He never stopped loving them. He still chose to die for them.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Whose sins have greatly disturbed you lately?
2. What have you done about it? How loving and caring have you been while handling it?
3. What bothers you about the way some people have pointed out your sins or the sins of others? How could they have been more compassionate?
4. Share the story of a time when someone successfully led another into repentance and growth. Explain why the effort was effective.
