Dear Lord Jesus, it is my will to surrender to you everything that I am and everything that I'm striving to be. I open the deepest recesses of my heart and invite your Holy Spirit to dwell inside of me.

I offer you my life, heart, mind, body, soul, spirit, all my hopes, plans, and dreams. I surrender my past, present and future problems. I release everything into your compassionate care. Please speak to me clearly, Lord. Open my ears to hear your voice. Open my heart to commune with you more deeply. Open the doors that need to be opened and close the doors that need to be closed. CRAIG'S CORNER

A note from our music director

This weekend's Gospel is a major shift for Jesus' apostles. Until this passage, He was healing the sick, preaching in parables, and proclaiming the new kingdom and a new teaching to the people. Until today, fresh after telling Peter that He will be the rock on which the Church will be built, He throws a curveball stating that it is not a pathway of ease. He tells them He will be rejected and put to death and be raised up. Peter of course is flabbergasted, and moments after being put on a pedestal, Jesus calls him Satan. Jesus continues, saying that for those who follow him, the road is not easy. We will have crosses and must know that the Christian way of life has many challenges but we await our reward based on our conduct. Jeremiah feels the rejection today in the first reading and Saint Paul reminds us in the second reading too that we must discern the will of God and not be conformed to the things of this world.

Often times we think of the Gospels of Jesus foreshadowing His crucifixion during the Lenten season and in the days leading up to Holy Week. But in Matthew's Gospel this foreshadowing doesn't happen right before the crucifixion. Immediately after this passage, the Transfiguration takes place then Jesus continues His ministry in teaching and in healing.

To that end, our music this weekend reflects a little bit of Holy Week, but also lifts up the cross not as a symbol of torture, but of triumph and glory. We open the Mass as we do on many Holy Thursdays singing "We Remember" where we recall that each time we come to the altar of God it is to recall that Last Supper which Christ instituted the Holy Eucharist. Our offertory solo, Lord, Whose Love in Humble Service prays that while Christ suffered on the cross, it is us now who wholeheartedly serve each other as Christ did, no matter what the cost of discipleship might be. The first verse states:

Lord, whose love in humble service bore the weight of human need,

Who did on the cross forsaken, show us mercy's perfect deed;

We, your servants bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart:

Consecrating to your purpose every gift which you impart.

Let these words be our prayer as we go forth this week. As I mentioned earlier this summer, I am working on an organ recital for the basilica next Lent based on the 14 Stations of the Cross. Throughout the 14 movements, various themes portraying the final moments of Christ's life appear. The one that stands out to me the most isn't any of the dark themes but rather the theme of redemption which is interwoven throughout the work in various parts. It reminds me often that while the pain of the cross is real, that is not the final word. So with that in mind this weekend let us lift high our crosses (as we sing for recessional) not as symbols of the cost of discipleship but rather as the crosses we bear to attain a more permanent goal of everlasting life.

OUTDOOR MASS AT THE BASILICA OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

The 11 a.m. Sunday Mass will be offered outdoors at the Shrine of St. Anthony; whenever there are optimal weather conditions-between 68 and 78 Fahrenheit, and near zero chance of rain. Please check the weather and if possible bring a light lawn chair. Use social distancing on the lawn area. Families are together. The Basilica will also provide seating. Any questions e-mail the Minister of Music Craig Ziobert who is also a meteorologist! Thank you for your patience in this time of the necessity o assure the health safety of the Faith community. ## TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scripture Readings for August 30, 2020

Sunday      Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Jer 20:7-9; Ps 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9; Rom 2:1-2; Mt 16:21-27

Following the Lord means nothing less than the cross: offering ourselves with Jesus as a living sacrifice and not conforming ourselves to this world. Following him will entail derision and scorn, yet the Lord is our help.

INTERCESSION:

That all men and women pursuing a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life will have the discipline and perseverance to follow in the path of Christ,
We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

25th, 40th, 50th and over Wedding Anniversary Celebration

The Diocese of Youngstown is sponsoring a Wedding Anniversary Celebration on Sunday, October 18, 2 p.m. at St. Columba Cathedral in Youngstown, honoring couples observing their 25th, 40th, 50th and over wedding anniversaries in 2020. The wedding Anniversary Celebration will include Mass with Msgr. Robert Siffrin, renewal of marriage vows and a personalized certificate for each couple. Couples may opt to attend the Wedding Anniversary Celebration Mass in person at St. Columba Cathedral or they may participate remotely via livestreaming on the diocesan website at www.doy.org. Limited spaces are available for couples at the cathedral. You must make reservations in advance for this event by contacting your parish office before September 16.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

In today's New Testament reading, St. Paul urges us to offer our "bodies as a living sacrifice." While not necessarily calling us to give up our physical bodies, he is calling us to share the gift of our lives in a way that is pleasing to God. We recognize that our lives are gifts from God, and in turn, we are called to share pieces of our lives with others through our gifts of time, talent, and treasure.

Holy Saint Anthony, gentle and powerful in your help, your love for God and charity for His creatures, made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Miracles waited on your word, which you were always ready to request for those in trouble or anxiety. Encouraged by this thought, I implore you to obtain for me (request). The answer to my prayer may require a miracle. Even so, you are the Saint of miracles. Gentle and loving Saint Anthony, whose heart is ever full of human sympathy, take my petition to the Infant Savior for whom you have such a great love, and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen.

Saturday September 5
1 Corinthians 4:6b-15
Ps 145:17-21
Luke 6:1-5

Today's first reading is one of my personal favorites. I have often felt the way Jeremiah does here. I have yelled at God, "You duped me, O Lord, and I let myself be duped!" And I allow it again and again. "You knew this would happen, Lord! Why did you lead me into this trial?" Have you ever felt that way?

Why do we let him do this to us? Why do we trust God even though he leads us into difficult situations? Why do we follow Jesus into giving our help and love to others even though it's going to feel very uncomfortable if not downright painful?

Walking with God and serving his kingdom is an adventure. We can expect the unexpected, and unfortunately in this world that includes suffering – denying ourselves the opportunity to pursue self-centered agendas, taking up crosses, and following Jesus all the way to Calvary (but then of course, all the way to resurrection, too, as explained in the Gospel reading).

Because we love God, we offer ourselves as a living sacrifice, like the second reading asks us to do. This is the highest form of worship; it's a spiritual communion that we experience outside of the Eucharistic liturgy of Mass. In union with Jesus, we are the Eucharist.

As Jeremiah's complaint shows us, we can safely complain to God. We can tell him, without getting punished, that we do not like working for him. Complaining to others, however, is a sin because it causes gossip and prejudices and makes God look bad.

Asking for prayer support during our trials is important, but complaining to others shows how little we trust God. Eventually, we will see the good that comes from our sacrifices, and this is what we should communicate to others.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How do you feel when you do a good deed and it later works against you? Have you said "no" to allowing it to happen again?
2. What brings the healing love of Jesus to you to help you recover?
3. What unexpected sufferings have you encountered while giving someone a gift of unconditional love or while doing some other service for the kingdom of God?
4. How did you feel about God at that time? Was the cross you carried worth all the hardships? Explain.
