A Prayer For Our New Bishop

Almighty God, eternal shepherd and guide,
 In your love for us,

Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141

REMEMBER US LAST: When you are preparing your Will and Estate Plan, remember those closest to you, spouse, family members, and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-743-4144.

Dispensation From The Obligation To Attend Sunday Mass

The Catholic faithful who reside in the Diocese of Youngstown and all other Catholics in the diocese and especially those who are sick, or at high risk of becoming sick continue to be dispensed from their Sunday obligation until further notice. The Easter Duty obligation is expended for a period of one year from the end of the Easter Season 2020.

Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020

Due to the stay home orders and the many shut downs, the Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020 is notably behind in reaching the goal. Since the appeal reaches out the genuinely needy of the Valley, please respond and make your annual contribution. God's choicest blessing. Send to Basilica office at your earliest convenience.

REGISTRATION: Members of the parish should be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mt. Carmel envelopes, please call the rectory Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.—2:00 p.m. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory at 330-743-4144.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A note from our music director

The Our Father we pray each weekend can often be a part of Mass we overlook because we're so used to it. We recite it (or chant it) so regularly that sometimes the words may not even mean anything to us or we just "go through the motions." While the music, the readings, many of the prayers and the homily all change weekly, the Our Father stays the same. That doesn't nullify its significance.

Continuing where we left off last weekend talking about forgiveness and love of one's neighbor, this weekend we again hear of the theme of forgiveness and as we hear in the first reading, "wrath and anger are hateful things yet the sinner holds them tight." In the Gospel, Jesus tells Peter and those around him that forgiveness never ends: we must forgive those who sin against us "not seven times, but seventy seven times." This is where the Our Father comes in! Each time we pray this we specifically state, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

So do we pray these words every weekend at Mass and actually think what they are saying or do we just go through the motions of the prayer? If we are true Christians and come to Mass to partake of the Eucharist and follow the Gospel, we have to take even the difficult teachings to heart too. Forgiveness isn't easy as Jesus' parable of the king and the servants reminds us today. He challenges us, telling us we will be sent to torture unless we forgive each other for wrongs against us from our hearts: just like we pray each weekend.

Our music this weekend matches the readings perfectly as we sing of forgiveness in our hymns, "The Master Came to Bring Good News" and "As We Forgive." The text of "As We Forgive" directly states the Our Father prayer while the verses of "The Master Came to Bring Good News" call our attention to the social justice teachings of the Church and living out our call to discipleship in love of one another, brought together by the refrain: "Father forgive us; through Jesus hear us, as we forgive one another." Since we're only singing refrains as a congregation right now during the pandemic, and with this text being so critical to our Mass this weekend, here are the verses of the hymn for you to pray throughout the week:

1) The Master came to bring good news, the news of love and freedom. To heal the sick and seek the poor, To build the peaceful Kingdom. 2) Through Jesus Christ the Law's Fulfilled, The Man who lived for others. The law of Christ is love alone, To serve now all our brothers. 3) To seek the sinners Jesus came, To live among the friendless. To show them love that they might share The kingdom that is endless. 4) Forgive us, Lord as we forgive, And seek to help each other. Forgive us, Lord and we shall live, To pray and work together.

If we want our faults forgiven, Jesus tells us we MUST also forgive each other. I stressed last weekend the significance of the psalms at our Masses. Just so, this weekend's psalm reminds us too that, it is the Lord who is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion. As we pray these words, and especially the words of the Our Father, let us remember these aren't simply things on the checklist of our Mass, but rather must be lived out in our daily lives as we go forth through the weeks ahead.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings September 13, 2020

Sunday Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sir 27:30—28:7; Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12; Rom 14:7-9; Mt 18:21-35

The Lord is kind and merciful, so should we be forgiving toward one another. Our forgiveness is to be without limit and so reflect Christ's eternal love. He alone is Lord.

INTERCESSION:

That those who are called by God to be instruments of His love and mercy in this world will have the courage, generosity and strength to say yes, and that they will receive the support of their families and friends, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Today's Second Reading tells us that “none of us lives for oneself.” This is the life of a Christian steward! We see this type of dedication through the lives of our priests, deacons, and religious community members, but it does not stop there! We are called to live for the Lord, and whenever we share our time, talent, and treasure with others, we not only share them with others, we also share them with the Lord.

Jesus' message in this Sunday's Gospel reading explains a line from the "Our Father" prayer he had taught earlier (Matthew 6:12): "Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us."

The strongest word here is "AS" – the same as, just like, in equal measure.

If there is anyone we have not forgiven, if there is anyone we cannot pray for with love, we'd better keep our mouths shut during this part of the prayer to our Father, who is the Father of all.

Sometimes, it's difficult to forgive because we think "forgiving" means "forgetting". Jesus never said that we must forget what the debtor owes. Forgiveness means remembering – and learning from the memory – without demanding repayment or retribution.

Unforgiveness is a form of punishment: it's payback time. For example, if we remain angry, we hope that our anger or coldness will somehow punish the sinner into repentance. Well, guess what. That never works.

Here's something else we do that never works: holding a grudge to protect ourselves from getting hurt again. Grudges do not free us from the pain of bad memories. It chains us to them.

When we free others from the debts they owe us for hurting us (whether they seek it or not, whether they're still alive or not), we free ourselves and our healing begins – our healing!

It's the most loving gift that we can give to ourselves, as it's a gift of love to others. Even when they don't recognize our gift, God does.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Who angers you because they don't deserve your forgiveness?
2. What are you gaining from unforgiveness and resentment? What will you lose if you forgive?
3. What is the most difficult part of forgiveness?
4. What steps do you take for pushing yourself into truly letting go of unforgiveness so you can find healing? Sharing this with others will spread good ideas that could change someone's life!
