Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a “virus” that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the “virus of sin” attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, “Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him.” It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141

REMEMBER US LAST: When you are preparing your Will and Estate Plan, remember those closest to you, spouse, family members, and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-743-4144.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A note from our music director

At the dawn of creation God formed his wonderful planto include His vast universe and His image man. When light shined in darkness before unending day, Life, Truth, and Love shown like stars to light the Way. And the sons of God shouted for joy as they saw and heard the morning stars sing together God's eternal Word.

These words are the text of the instrumental prelude for the Masses this weekend. They begin by stating God's plan for the world with creation then human existence being in His image. I touched briefly on this "plan" last weekend as we heard the parable of the landowner and his payment to the workers. Not always do we see things the way God sees them. The same thing happens today when Christ tells the chief priests and elders who think they are doing what God wants them to do. Jesus tells them the complete opposite: prostitutes and tax collectors are the ones entering His kingdom! The difference? Jesus reminds them that John heralded His coming and they did not believe in him. Just like Ezekiel was warning in the first reading that those who turn from their wicked ways shall preserve their lives, so Christ reminds the chief priests that sinners were changing their lives for the "Life, Truth, and Love" which is Christ – not them. The aforementioned text centers around how Jesus is "Life, Truth, and Love" to light the way for us, who though sinners, call upon Him for His mercy as we sing in today's psalm.

Our communion hymn this weekend, "No Greater Love" reminds us that if we want to follow this kingdom Christ sets before the chief priests and elders this weekend, that we must lay down our lives for each other in true Christian discipleship. Paul's letter to the Philippians (our offertory canticle too) this weekend shows us what this true discipleship is in the person of Jesus, who humbled himself becoming obedient to death even death on a cross in which God exalted Him – laying down His life for us, His friends.

So as we go forth this week, think of this weekend's Gospel of the two sons and the question Christ portrays to the chief priests, "which of the two did the father's will?" Of course the son who, while not at first, still went and did the father's will is the one who Christ wants us to be. As we sing in our entrance antiphon this weekend, "here I am Lord, I come to do your will, make of me what pleases you." We know what we have to do to please God. We know the cost of true Christian discipleship. God's plan is for us to be with Him forever following His way of life, truth and love. The real question for us though, is do we actually follow the Father's will?

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Twenty-Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Time

“He humbled Himself and became obedient...” If the Lord invites you to follow Him in humble obedience as a priest or in the consecrated life, how will you respond? Call Father Scott Kopp at 330-744-8451 or e-mail: skopp@youngstowndiocese.org.

INTERCESSION:

That men and women will be open to the voice of the Lord, asking the Holy Spirit and our Blessed Mother to help them recognize and answer His call to serve Him as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

3rd Banns Mariah DeFuria & Alex Welsh

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for repose of souls, WILLIAM KINNICK, age 80, ARLENE LARSON, age 78, ALBERT PETER NERONE, age 101, PHILIP DEANGELO, age 73, SOPHIA SCHIAVONI, age 97. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul calls us to look out for the interests of others in addition to our own. What would the world look like if none of us cared for one another? As Christian stewards, we are called to share of our time, talent, and treasure with those around us. How can we work to think of others more, while still being respectful of ourselves? This is an important characteristic of any Christian community.

COME and PRAY DEVOTIONS TO THE SACRED HEART First Friday of each month

12:00 noon Mass at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica

6:00 p.m. Liturgy of the Word, Holy Communion at St. Anthony of Padua Church followed by Devotions to the Sacred Heart

Readings for the Week of September 27, 2020

Sunday Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Ez 18:25-28; Ps 25:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14; Phil 2:1-11, or Phil 2:1-5; Mt 21:28-32

Jesus was obedient to the Father, even to death on a cross. We need never fear if we turn away from the path of virtue for the Lord is ever ready to forgive us, if we but repent. Remember the Lords, compassion and kindness are from of old.

The Hour

for the whole World!

"At three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for poor sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony. This is the hour of great mercy for the whole world. I will allow you to enter into My mortal sorrow.

In this hour, I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion... " (Diary, 1320)
