Almighty God, eternal shepherd and guide,
 In your love for us,
 Grant to the Diocese of Youngstown, a shepherd who

Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141

REMEMBER US LAST: When you are preparing your Will and Estate Plan, remember those closest to you, spouse, family members, and loved ones. Then remember Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica with a residual gift that defines your Legacy of Faith as a member of our parish community. Please call 330-743-4144.

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

THE LAITY'S MISSION IN THE CHURCH. We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.

By mail registered members received a letter concerning a request for a one-time sacrificial offering to assist in this time of need. Due to the fact that major fundraisers had to be cancelled because of Covid 19. The parish council and financial council both unanimously recommended this appeal to you in time of significant necessity. I am most grateful as pastor for what you can do. May God bless you. Msgr. Cariglio.

Dispensation From The Obligation To Attend Sunday Mass

The Catholic faithful who reside in the Diocese of Youngstown and all other Catholics in the diocese and especially those who are sick, or at high risk of becoming sick continue to be dispensed from their Sunday obligation until further notice. The Easter Duty obligation is expended for a period of one year from the end of the Easter Season 2020.

CRAIG'S CORNER

A note from our music director

The word “vineyard” appears to us in today’s Scripture readings 11 times between the first reading, the psalm and the Gospel. The vineyard in today’s Gospel again is the setting for a parable in which Jesus is talking to the chief priests and elders. He states that different groups of workers were all brought to work on a vineyard but were beaten, bruised and stoned. When the landowner sent his son to the tenants, they put him to death too. The chief priests and elders are infuriated because they of course know Jesus is talking directly to them here (this Gospel takes place following Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday). Jesus of course isn’t arrested until a couple days later, but the point of this parable isn’t to call attention to Jesus’ passion, but rather, gives us another glimpse into how we should live in order to partake of the Kingdom of God. Jesus concludes this passage reminding us that His kingdom will be for those of us who produce good fruit.

How do we do this? One way is to look no further than the example of Saint Francis of Assisi whose feast day would have been this Sunday, October 4 (the Ordinary Time Sunday takes precedence over the saint day). His well-known prayer, “Lord make me an instrument of your peace” offers us many insights on how to bring about the Kingdom of God into our world today. Where there is hatred, showing love; where there is doubt, faith in God; where there is despair, hope, and in forgiving others that we are forgiven so that in our dying on earth we may be brought to life eternal.

The vineyard of the Lord is our home and end goal but God also gives us this world today to use in which to produce good fruit and not filled with wild grapes or made ruin. We, like Francis, must be kind and gentle to God’s creation and use what we have on earth to praise and glorify Christ through our words and actions.

Our music fittingly combines these readings and Saint Francis’ texts this weekend. Saint Francis’ words of praise of creation make up the opening hymn “All Creatures of Our God and King,” while of course his even more popular peace prayer text is sung with an alternate musical arrangement as an offertory solo. For communion, as we sing “We Have Been Told,” we are reminded that God has told us all we need to do to promote his Kingdom on earth, He is the vine, we are the branches, and we must be the ones to bear much fruit.

So as we go forward this week, with the help of the Blessed Mother (who we also celebrate in a special way in the month of October dedicated to the Holy Rosary), inspired by the words of Francis of Assisi, we may ask God to make of us instruments of peace. This way we can build up the Kingdom, bearing good fruit which will last in the God’s Kingdom forever: in the vineyard of the Lord.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Twenty-Seventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

“This is the Lord’s doing and it is amazing in our eyes.” Being chosen to serve as a priest or in the consecrated life is an amazing work of the Lord. Ask the Holy Spirit and our Blessed Mother to help you recognize and be faithful to your vocation. Call Fr. Scott Kopp at 330-744-8451 or email: skopp@youngstowndiocese.org.

INTERCESSION:

That men and women will be open to the voice of the Lord, asking the Holy Spirit and our Blessed Mother to help them recognize and answer His call to serve Him as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life,
We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for repose of soul, FLORENCE YIANNITTI, age 91. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Today’s readings focus on vineyards. We know it takes time and dedication to produce a crop of grapes from a vineyard, but how often do we focus on the vineyards of our hearts? If we cultivate authentic Christian stewardship within our hearts, we give joyfully of our time, talent, and treasure to the Lord. If we do not connect our stewardship to doing the Lord’s work, it’s easy to let our heart’s vineyard produce a bad crop
