Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141.

NEW BISHOP OF DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

His Holiness, Pope Francis, has announced the appointment of the new Bishop of the Diocese of Youngstown, Father David Bonnar of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. His Episcopal ordination and installation as new Bishop will take place on January 12, 2021 at St. Columba Cathedral.

Let us pray in grateful appreciation and for his success as successor of Apostles.

CRAIG'S CORNER

*In lowliness you came on earth, to rescue us from Satan's snares:
O wondrous love that healed our wounds, by taking on our mortal cares!*

Great judge before whom all shall stand, have pity on your children's plight;

Rise up to shield us with your grace, Deliver us from Satan's might!

There are a couple common themes we get in these verses of the hymn "O Lord of Light." The first is the obvious, where this Advent hymn recalls our preparation for the celebration of the coming of Christ at Christmas: in lowliness you came on earth. The bigger theme here though is the why Christ came to earth. Twice we hear why in these two verses: to rescue and deliver us from Satan. Christ was the Savior, directly stating that we needed someone to save us from original sin. That was true 2000 years ago and is still true today. So while we do prepare to commemorate yet again the coming of Christ at Christmas, we have to remember that this event already took place. Christ did come to save us once. While we in this given moment as we begin the Advent season once again, must place ourselves in that mentality of preparing spiritually to commemorate the event of Christ's birth, Advent is also a time where we prepare for the second coming of Christ as well: an event that has not yet taken place.

We have been delivered from Satan's might but the Church gives us this season to once again prepare our hearts and lives if we've faltered somehow. Just last week I talked about and we heard about what Christian discipleship is and how we are to treat our neighbors. The season of Advent gives us another chance to, while preparing to commemorate Christmas yet again, to turn from evil and sin so that as we hear in our reading's today, are alert and ready for when Christ comes again. It should come as no surprise to us, that the psalmist gives us insight into this as well: "Lord make us turn toward you, let us see your face and we shall be saved." Save, rescue, and deliver us from Satan's might as the hymn above states. Make us turn towards Christ so we can be saved. The action is already done, it happened 2000 years ago, but we are here now. We must be prepared for the second coming also. Be watchful, be alert!, our gospel tells us today. He's not telling us this because Christmas is coming. Christmas already happened. He's telling us this because we don't know when the second coming will be. THAT is what we must be prepared for. Yes, it is important that we prepare for the liturgical season of Christmas ahead and that is one reason why we have Advent. It is, as the December days grow shorter, a season of light as we light the candles of the Advent wreath, which is what I based our hymns on this weekend. Let us bring that light with us each day of this season as we prepare our hearts for the Christmas holiday, but even more importantly, prepare ourselves for that hour we do not know: when Christ will come again.

PRAYER TO ST. ROCCO

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us,
We beseech thee, from the Scourges of God; through thy Intercession, preserve our Bodies from contagious
Diseases, and our souls from
The contagion of sin.

Obtain for us salubrious air;
But, above all, purity of heart.

Assist us to make good use of health, to bear sufferings with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
St. Rocco, pray for us—3 times

INTERCESSION:

That the hearts and minds of those called to serve the Lord as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life will not be lacking in any spiritual gift, but will continue to be enriched in Christ, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

First Sunday of Advent:

Advent is a time of watching and waiting. Are you open to the surprising ways God comes to you? Be attentive to God's call in the ordinary. (Mark 13:33-37). If you think God is calling you to be a priest, deacon, brother or sister, call Father Scott Kopp at 330-744-8451 or email: skopp@youngstowndiocese.org.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Like the man traveling abroad in today's Gospel passage, Jesus left the earth with the promise of returning one day. If Jesus is the man traveling, we are all the servants he put in charge while he is gone. Like the servants, we are charged with carrying out our own work. The aspect of stewardship we can easily forget is how we spend our time. Are we Productive, as the servants were expected to be? Or do we Leave work for others to complete while we waste our time? Good stewards know how to spend their time wisely.

The second reading gives thanks to God for all that he has done for us. So – what gift can you give to God to express your appreciation for what he has given to you?

In the Gospel reading, we're reminded of the need to prepare – to actually do something that makes a difference – for the coming of Christ. This not only refers to his Second Coming; it's also about the day when he comes for us as we breathe our last earthly breaths. And it's about the way he wants to come to you this

As we prepare for Christmas, of course we're thinking about how to show fondness and appreciation to the special people in our lives by choosing gifts that will be meaningful to them. And yet, assuming that we can actually find (or make) something that will be appreciated, will the gift really make a difference in the long run?

Since Christmas is the celebration of the birthday of Jesus, let's give him a gift, too – a long-lasting gift. But what can we give to someone who already has everything?

Or does he?

What gift can you give to Jesus that will have an eternal impact, a gift that no one else can give him, a gift he doesn't already have? Here's the answer: What have you been withholding from him?

Today's first reading reminds us that God is our Father. The responsorial Psalm asks the Father to help us turn to him.

Christmas. And it's about the way he is coming to you right now, today.

There's something new that he wants to give you. When he offers it, will he find you doing what's right (as in the first reading)? Will he find you using your spiritual gifts (as in the second reading)? Will he find you alert and ready to do his bidding (as in the Gospel reading)?

Advent is an opportunity to take notice of the gifts he gives us and become aware of the gifts we can give to him that he doesn't already have. It should make an eternal difference – for him and for us.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. List the gifts that God has given to you. Then think about how much appreciation you have given to God for the gifts on that list. Do you know how much he appreciates your appreciation?
2. Name ways that Jesus comes to us today.
3. What will you do this Advent to become more aware of Jesus coming to you?
4. How will this make you more ready for Christmas?

WHAT ARE YOU DOING
TO PLAN FOR THE MOST SIGNIFICANT FINANCIAL EVENT OF YOUR LIFE?
