

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

The term "Communion of Saints" refers also to the communion of "Holy Persons" (Sancti) in Christ who "died for all," so that what each one does or suffers in and for Christ bears fruit for all.

ALL SAINTS
TODAY'S FOCUS: THE AROMA OF THE HEAVENLY FEAST

Do we imagine the heavenly banquet as having an aroma? One that wafts toward us, lifting us up in the manner of a blissful cartoon character? Oh, what a fragrance the celestial delights must have!

On this feast of All Saints, we celebrate the dead and bring their memory back to life. When we think of those gone to heaven, we have it backwards. But really, truly, they are the living. We are the dying. We are dying for the aroma of eternity. Something heavenly awaits us. They have gone before us into the banquet of life.

Revelations 7: 2-4, 9-14

Psalm 24: 6

1 John 3: 1-3

Matthew 5: 1-12a

God of glory, you give us so many heroes and heroines of the faith! They toiled for what was right. They fought for justice. Thank you for giving us so many examples of people of holy virtue. They lived and died for you. They knew you and loved you. We want to be saints, too. Lift us higher! Empower our faith! Take us with you to the banquet! Ah, the joy of All Saints!

Please remember in prayers the parishioners who are ill, homebound or in nursing homes. May the Divine Physician grant them strength, patience, and healing. You are encouraged to visit them, phone them or send them a card. Please call the office for addresses.

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

Our church continues to meet the sacramental and spiritual needs of our homebound parishioners. If you are aware of anyone who is homebound and in need or desire of our support, please contact the parish office. Likewise, if a member of your family is in the hospital and in need of either the Sacrament of the Sick or Communion, please call. Thank you for your cooperation.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS OUR PARISHIONERS WHO ARE ILL, HOME BOUND, OR IN NURSING HOMES:

ALL SAINTS DAY

All Saint's day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints. All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints-that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church.

ALL SOULS' DAY
THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

All Souls day is a holy day set aside for honoring the dead. The soul of a person who dies can go to one of three places. The first is heaven, where a person who dies in a state of perfect grace and communion with God goes. The second is hell, where those who die in a state of mortal sin are naturally condemned by their choice. The immediate option is purgatory, which is thought to be where most people, free of mortal sin, but still in a state of lesser (venial) sin, must go.

Purgatory is necessary so that souls can be cleansed and perfected before they enter into heaven. There is scriptural basis for this belief. The primary reference is a 2 Maccabees, 12: 26 and 12: 32. "Turning to supplication, they prayed that the sinful deed might be fully blotted out...Thus made atonement for the dead that they might be free from sin." Through the prayers of the faithful on Earth, the dead are cleansed of their sins so they may enter into heaven.

THANK YOU

It is with great gratitude and prayerful reflections that I thank all the volunteers for their hard work and dedication to St. Anthony of Padua church in the complete success of our Drive-Thru Cavatelli Dinner that was held here. Their hard work in service to the community produced over 500 dinners and a sell out by 2:00 p.m. It's in the spirit of St. Anthony and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel that we as a community will always be seen as one of service to God's people. Thank you and keep safe. May God our Father continue to Bless Us abundantly.
