THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S FOCUS: RETURN ON INVESTMENT

God invests in us; in turn, invest our lives in God. The danger comes in making our spiritual lives too transactional. Rather, we invest-and are invested in-through our relationship with the divine.

Christian life is not a bargaining "You gave me this, God, so I'll give you that." The mom who gets up at 2:46 a.m. to tend to a sick child, may (or may not) make a return on the time she gave to her child. She loves anyway. The Creator of the world will never make a balanced return on us. God loves anyway. God takes a risk on us. The giver of gifts asks us to invest our lives in the boldest of schemes: follow Jesus wherever and however he leads.. That is a grand venture. The ROI is out of this world.

Proverbs 31: 10-13, 19-20, 30-31

Psalms 128: 1a

1 Thessalonians 5: 1-6

Matthew 25: 14-30 or 25: 14-15, 19-21

God of love, there is no way that I can give you back as much as I have been given. Do not let me see myself as a number on a heavenly balance sheet. Whatever you call me to do, help me to spend my life with love and generosity. I believe that this life is worth my best effort. Refresh my energy, for sometimes I feel it wearing out. You did not count the cost. Help me to do the same. For you, eternal God, have not just promised a "reward." You have promised me yourself as my future.

Please remember in prayers the parishioners who are ill, homebound or in nursing homes. May the Divine Physician grant them strength, patience, and healing. You are encouraged to visit them, phone them or send them a card. Please call the office for addresses.

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

Our church continues to meet the sacramental and spiritual needs of our homebound parishioners. If you are aware of anyone who is homebound and in need or desire of our support, please contact the parish office. Likewise, if a member of your family is in the hospital and in need of either the Sacrament of the Sick or Communion, please call. Thank you for your cooperation.

GIVING THANKS DURING A PANDEMIC

We give You thanks and praise,
O God of times and seasons,
But especially during these difficult times
When disease and death have Threatened the whole world with suffering.

Though separated from one another
You remain near to all.
While uncertain as to what
The future may bring
We find comfort in knowing
You hold all things in Your hand.

May this be a time of purification
And penance that we might
Number our days aright and
Find wisdom to walk in Your ways.
Grant that we never again take
Our life, health, breath, food or freedom for granted.
Bless us through our friends and families
And may this food and Your grace give us
Strength and courage to follow
You more faithfully through Christ our Lord.

Amen
