In this new Liturgical Year commences with the first Sunday of Advent. The Church not only wishes to indicate the beginning of a period, but the beginning of a renewed commitment to the faith by all those who follow Christ, the Lord. This time of prayer and path of penance that is so powerful, rich and intense, endeavors to give us a renewed impetus to truly welcome the message of the One who was incarnated for us. In fact, the entire Liturgy of the Advent season, will spur us to an awakening in our Christian life and will put us in a "vigilant" disposition, to wait for Our Lord Jesus who is coming,

'Awaken! Remember that God comes! Not yesterday, not tomorrow, but today, now! The one true God, "the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob", is not a God who is there in Heaven, unconcerned with us and our history, but he is the-God-who-comes.'

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT
TODAY'S FOCUS: ADVENT IS CALLING

Advent is a season that makes demands on our attentiveness. It is a time for us to pay attention to the ways in which the Divine beckons us.

Years after their return to the ancestral land, God's people remained under foreign rule and suffered agricultural, economic, and social difficulties, which many took as a sign Israel remained under divine judgment. Sounds like His people today. Sickness, unemployment, division in the country. Jesus alerts us today: The One we love is here. Something is happening. Be attentive. Watch!

Isaiah 63: 16b-17, 19b; 64: 2-7

Psalms 80: 4

I Corinthians 1: 3-9

Mark 13: 33-37

Savior of the world, you are the Prince of Peace. We are not at peace. We feel some risk. You have always been faithful to us. We are not always faithful to you. As we move into Advent, bring us to deeper conversion. You ask us to be more aware of your presence. You are active. You are always moving in our lives. Thank you for rescuing us in our past. We trust you to take care of our future. O come, Emmanuel. Come and save us!

Please remember in prayers the parishioners who are ill, homebound or in nursing homes. May the Divine Physician grant them strength, patience, and healing. You are encouraged to visit them, phone them or send them a card. Please call the office for addresses.

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND
