Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141.

I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

FOR A LIFE OF PRAYER. We pray that our personal relationship with Jesus Christ be nourished by the Word of God and a life of prayer..

Craig's Corner

A note from our Music Director

Merriam Webster defines the word silence as “forbearance of speech and noise; absence of sound or noise.” Even Church leaders wrote about silence in their documents about music in the Mass. They write,

Music arises out of silence and returns to silence. God is revealed both in the beauty of song and in the power of silence. The Sacred Liturgy has its rhythm of texts, actions, songs, and silence. Silence in the Liturgy allows the com-munity to reflect on what it has heard and experienced, and to open its heart to the mystery celebrated. Ministers and pastoral musicians should take care that the rites unfold with the proper ebb and flow of sound and silence. The importance of silence in the Liturgy cannot be overempha-sized.

Monsignor last weekend in his homily spoke of quiet and silent prayer as a way to foster the Advent season. Silence is a major component to the Advent season. Understand, though, that silence doesn't mean sadness; we are to treat this season with joy! This weekend we hear Isaiah prophesy “A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a high-way for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low.” This is a joyful text, a joyful message; and the inspiration behind the opening hymn of today's Mass. In the secu-lar world, the weeks leading up to Christmas are always busy and hectic – anything but silent and still. The Church in its rich history and Tradition gives us these four Sundays to separate ourselves from this hustle and bustle but rather, silently contemplate the coming of Christ.

John the Baptist, from whom we hear in the Gospel this weekend is an important figure to keep in our minds this season. Mark quotes Isaiah before he introduces us to John's character. Then John himself reminds the people that he is the forerunner of Christ, only preparing the people for the coming of the Messiah. Connecting this theme, this weekend's postlude is a setting of a German Advent chorale proclaiming of the coming of Christ, “Savior of the Nations, Come.”

During this Advent season, let us take advantage of periods of silence so that we can prepare for the coming of Christ with the absence of the sounds and noise of the secular season we are bombarded with in the outside world.

PRAYER TO ST. ROCCO

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us,
We beseech thee, from the Scourges of God; through thy Intercession, preserve our Bodies from contagious Diseases, and our souls from
The contagion of sin.
Obtain for us salubrious air;
But, above all, purity of heart.
Assist us to make good use of health, to bear sufferings with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
St. Rocco, pray for us—3 times

INTERCESSION:

For all those specially chosen by Christ to “prepare the way of the Lord” in their hearts and the hearts of His people as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters, We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Second Sunday of Advent—December 6, 2020

Second Sunday of Advent God calls us to proclaim the Good News. How do you share that Good News? Pray for the grace to be a faith filled witness of God’s love. (Isaiah 40: 1-5, 9-11). If you think God is calling you to be a priest, deacon, brother or sister, call Fr. Scott Kopp at 330-744-8451 or email: skopp@youngstowndiocese.org.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Today’s readings speak to us about the peace the Lord will bring when he comes to us. We know that Christian stewardship involves sharing of our material resources, but Christian stewards are also called to share peace, truth, and kindness, as mentioned in today’s Responsorial Psalm. As the psalmist states, “The LORD himself will give his benefits.” We know the Lord will make good on his promise; what can we do to follow his example?

God. Go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation and create a wider road into your heart that's easy for Jesus to travel, a through-way upon which he can arrive in great speed and glory.

All humankind is as frail as grass, and all our glory is like the flower of the field that withers and wilts. Only the glory of God stands forever.

Prepare for the Lord! – for whatever he wants to give us, do for us, and ask of us. He has a plan for our lives, a divine purpose that will bring us to our full potential.

We can only do this by uniting ourselves to Christ, joining him on the straight path, the holy path. How do we know when we are on the right path? By the fruits of the journey.

Isaiah says: A voice cries out in the desert! What is barren in your life, and dry, hot, or empty? Sins dry up our potential for fruitfulness.

Advent is a good preparation for Christmas – and meeting the Lord anew – if we use it to face our sins, reconcile with God, and follow Jesus back onto the holy path. If we neglect this opportunity, our lives will be barren of the strong faith we need during difficulties..

Prepare the way of the Lord! He has more love to give you, more healing, more joy! Make straight in the wasteland of your sins a highway for our

What are your troubles and struggles? Here is where Jesus wants to minister to you, and here is where you are most vulnerable to sin.

What in your life is going well? What activities are you doing that seem productive? Are any of them grassy glories that can wither away? A hundred years from now, will what you're doing today still have an impact – a beneficial impact?

God has given you talents and a calling, a special purpose that requires those talents. Yes, you! We are all called to have fruitful lives that make an eternal difference. Jesus wants to come straight to us to produce the fruits of his kingdom in our lives and in others.

Prepare for the Lord to make an eternal difference through you!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What are you going to do to straighten a crooked path?
2. What are you spending time on that will wither up and wilt away?
3. How does thinking about eternity straighten the path that you're walking on today? What changes because of this perspective?
