Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141.

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

FOR A LIFE OF PRAYER. We pray that our personal relationship with Jesus Christ be nourished by the Word of God and a life of prayer..

The Extraordinary Sacrificial Offering

To date we have received 291 extraordinary envelope offerings from members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel to help with the anticipated $98,150 deficit of income due to lack of fundraisers on account of Covid 19. The offerings to date are in the amount of $75,645.00 dollars. The offering is a tremendous help for our stewardship in this time of need. If you are able to participate, please do so at your earliest convenience. It will be very helpful. God's choicest Blessings —Msgr. Cariglio - RECTOR

ONGOING BASILICA RESTORATION

In early April, necessary repairs surfaced during torrential rainstorms with regard to the façade of the Basilica. Over many decades, metal and roofing materials showed deterioration as the façade was investigated due to the water leaks. Restoration has occurred, done by AO Construction Co. at a cost of $48,088.00. The cost was covered through the restoration fund for the Basilica. I am grateful for all those whose donations to the Basilica have made us able to pay for this restoration. Msgr. Cariglio.

NEW BISHOP OF DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

His Holiness, Pope Francis, has announced the appointment of the new Bishop of the Diocese of Youngstown, Father David Bonnar of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. His Episcopal ordination and installation as new Bishop will take place on January 12, 2021 at St. Columba Cathedral.

Let us pray in grateful appreciation and for his success

Craig's Corner

A note from our Music Director

“Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I say rejoice!”

These words taken from the introit of our Mass today form the basis of the weekend each year on this third Sunday in our Advent season: Gaudete! The Latin word for rejoice. Our Advent season of preparation is past its halfway point and the celebration of the coming of Christ at Christmas is near.

This year has hardly felt joyful with a global pandemic, with constant tension in our communities and in our country, and so many other obstacles which seemed to dot the landscape of our world in 2020. How are we supposed to be joyful? The readings and our Advent message offers us some insight this weekend.

We hear Isaiah talk of the Spirit being upon him to bring good tidings to the poor and that his rejoicing comes from the Lord and the joy of God in his soul. Saint Paul tells the Thessalonians to rejoice always and pray without ceasing so that this same spirit Isaiah speaks of is not quenched. The spirit we were baptized into and that we received at Confirmation is alive in each one of us and this is given to us by Christ, as John tells those who are questioning him. John tells them that he is baptizing by water and we know that it is Christ who baptizes us in His spirit to dwell within us. This should be the cause of our joy! No matter what is going on in the outside world; no matter how differently we may have to celebrate Christmas this year, we are still celebrating the incarnation of Christ coming at Christmas, and our celebration is near. So the Church calls upon us to be joyful.

The refrain of our opening hymn starts our weekend right with that same word: “Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel. Shall come to you, O Israel.” Christ is coming to us, and soon. Rejoice! For offertory, I combined that theme with the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe which takes place on the Saturday daily Mass of December 12. Here, Mary is our hope, where we find roses in winter, touched by her love. Through her, we know that with God all things are possible and must place our hope and trust in Him: also cause of our rejoicing. The Communion processional we’ve been using this entire Advent season thus far, “Wait for the Lord,” also contains the verses from our scriptures this weekend of rejoicing.

As the rose candle is lit this weekend, and the vestment color of rose is worn, we remember to rejoice. While different this year, our Christmas celebration is near. Remember what we celebrate, and why. Keep the spirit of Christ alive in your hearts so that we can stay on the path that John began to prepare for Christ: making straight a highway for Christ.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Today's Responsorial Psalm recalls the words of Mary when she agreed to be the mother of God. Her words outline the life of a Christian steward. She recognizes all of the good things the Almighty has done, including filling the hungry with good things, coming to help his servant, and personally to Mary—that he “has done great things” for her. Mary recognized all of these things and gave her whole life to the Lord. When the Lord asks us to make sacrifices in our own lives—sacrifices far less than Mary made—the Christian steward heartily accepts!

PRAYER DURING CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother Mary,
We, your children of every nation,
Turn to you in this pandemic.
Our troubles are numerous; our fears are great.
Grant that we might deposit them at your feet,
Take refuge in your Immaculate Heart,
And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.
You are our Mother.
Pray for us to your Son.
Amen.

SOCIAL HALL MAJOR REPAIR

After 24 years, one of the two major heat and air units for the social hall has fallen into destitution necessitating replacement in the amount of $17,000.00. This replacement was done by York Mahoning Heating & Repair. The cost for this major repair has been covered with our reserves for capital expenses such as this. I am communicating this to you since I thought you would want to know. Msgr. Cariglio.

CONGRATULATIONS to Msgr. Cariglio

The Parishioners of the Basilica of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel—St. Anthony of Padua Parish extend our prayerful best wishes and congratulations to Msgr. Michael Cariglio on his 50th Anniversary of his ordination on December 18th to the Holy Priesthood. May God bless you and we wish you many more years of doing God's work and serving the parishioners of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel-St. Anthony of Padua Parish.

Luke 1:5-25

John the Baptist came to "testify to the light." What does this mean?

We know that Jesus is the Light of Truth shining in the darkness to draw us to eternal life. And we know that his Spirit enlightens us in the truth so that we can be saved from the destructive forces of our sins and follow our Savior to heaven. But what was the testimony of John? How did he testify to the light? And how does this affect our lives today?

John's testimony was: "I am not the Christ. I am a voice. A voice in the desert." His testimony brings us to the Light of Christ by challenging us with: "Where is your life arid and dry? Listen! Christ is coming to meet you there! Stop wandering around! Repent, change, do whatever is necessary to look for Jesus so that you can find him. He is coming to you!"

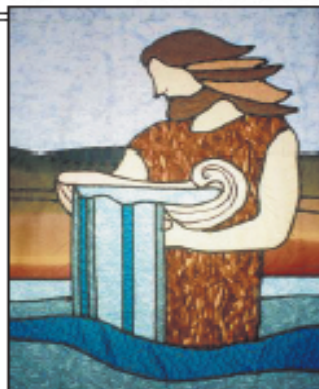

We've all experienced times when Jesus seems unavailable when we need him. What has opened your eyes to his presence? Whose voice has turned you back to God? It's time to do the same for others, to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to those who are held captive in their sins, and to announce how to be blessed by a close friendship with the Lord.

We all have the same testimony and the same calling as John had: We are all supposed to be voices crying out loud enough to be heard above the din of the world. Many souls are lost in the wilderness of confusion, hopelessness, pain, heartache, and despair, not to mention sin.

What kind of a voice do you have? Because we have Christ within us, our very lives are the voice.

Even if our vocal chords do not utter a single word, the way we live in the light is how we speak the truth of the light. The better we live the truth, the louder and clearer is our message.

What people choose to do with our message is up to them, but it's up to us to speak it so that they're given that choice.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How has your life been changed by your faith in Jesus? What evil has been conquered, what darkness has been overcome?
2. How has the Spirit of the Lord anointed you?
3. What gifts do you have that enable you to give to the poor (the financially poor or the emotionally starving or the spiritually hungry) or to heal broken hearts?
4. How has God used you to provide liberty to captives and release to prisoners?
5. How are these a testimony that teach others about Jesus?
