Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

This years theme-ABIDE IN MY LOVE AND YOU SHALL BEAR MUCH FRUIT (John 15: 5-9) calls us to pray and to work for reconciliation and unity in the church, with our human family, and with all of creation. Drawing on the Gospel image of vine and branches, it invites us to nourish unity with God and with one another through contemplative silence, prayer, and common action. Grafted into Christ the vine as many diverse branches, may we bear rich fruit and create new ways of living, with respect for and communion with all of creation.

Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration

Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @330-372-5141 or Jean Talley @330-758-3335.

Dispensation From The Obligation To Attend Sunday Mass

The Catholic faithful who reside in the Diocese of Youngstown and all other Catholics in the diocese and especially those who are sick, or at high risk of becoming sick continue to be dispensed from their Sunday obligation until further notice. The Easter Duty obligation is extended for a period of one year from the end of the Easter Season.

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HUMAN FRATERNITY

May the lord give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions, praying for one another, open to all.

URGENT NEED!

Make a Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in asking our Lord to deliver us from COVID-19. Rosary and Missalettes are in the vestibule for you to keep; or bring your own Bible or Prayer Book. Call the rectory -330-743-4144, Monday-Friday during office hours, 8:30-3:00 p.m. to receive the Code Number to enter the Basilica. Keep code CONFIDENTIAL. Sign in and sign out. Sanitize before & after your pew space with the materials near the Holy Water Fount. Every Holy Hour will help this sick world. Thank you and with love and prayers.

The Extraordinary Sacrificial Offering

To date we have received 309 extraordinary envelope offerings from members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel to help with the anticipated $98,150 deficit of income due to lack of fundraisers on account of Covid 19. The offerings to date are in the amount of $77,375.00 dollars. The offering is a tremendous help for our stewardship in this time of need. If you are able to participate, please do so at your earliest convenience. It will be very helpful. God's choicest Blessings —Msgr. Cariglio - RECTOR

Craig's Corner
A note from our Music Director

“As the bread of life is broken, the cup of love out-poured; we are one in Christ our Savior and sent to serve the Lord.”

These words, taken from our offertory text this weekend, signify our Christian call of service and discipleship. In our Catholic Tradition, the central aspect to our faith is the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. This hymn combines our Eucharistic celebration with the nourishment we receive in the Eucharist to strengthen us to live the Gospel of Christ in the world. Our invitation to communion at Mass announces Christ as the “Lamb of God,” taken from the Gospel this weekend where John announces Christ to the first disciples and tells them, “Behold, the Lamb of God.” Our prelude and communion hymn this weekend reference Christ as the title of Lamb. We also hear the call of Samuel in the first reading, and the psalm (and opening hymn) where the reply is heard, “Here am I Lord, I come to do your will.” The disciples heard this call, dropped everything to follow Christ, and eventually began the Church following the ascension of Christ and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

The communion hymn text above not only connects to the readings and our call to discipleship this weekend, but also combines these texts with the episcopal motto of our new bishop, David Bonnar. We sang this hymn this past week at his ordination to the order of bishop. His motto, “that all may be one” was chosen to underline the unity of the Church and its shepherds.

His coat of arms contains a wide array of symbolism. The left side of the shield signifies the Diocese of Youngstown. The golden dove is in honor of the patron of the diocesan cathedral, Saint Columba, and is also taken from the arms of Pope Pius XII who created the diocese in 1943. The golden anvil symbolizes the industrial landscape that has dominated much of northeastern Ohio. The silver wavy bar represents the Mahoning River. Two arrowheads recall the first residents of the area and is flanked by a cross taken from the arms of the Diocese of Cleveland from which the Youngstown diocese was formed, symbolizing the faith passed on from one community to another and from generation to generation.

The right side is Bishop Bonnar’s personal coat of arms. The chequy blue and silver fess appears in the Diocese of Pittsburgh’s coat of arms representing his diocese of origin. The seven point blue star recalls the Blessed Virgin Mary, whom Bishop Bonnar entrusts his new pastoral ministry. The pomegranate represents the motto of the bishop that all the grains of this fruit are united in an only body, the mystical body of the Church. The field of gold, the first among the noble metals, symbolizes the first of the virtues – the faith – which makes all believe in the salvation given by the Lord.

As we open up our ordered time this weekend following the Christmas season, we, under the direction of our new diocesan shepherd, go forth each Mass, nourished by the Eucharist and going forward as one regardless of our differences. We must answer the call of the Lord, the Lamb of God, to take our common oneness in Christ and our call to discipleship out in the world each day.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

In today's First reading, Samuel answers the call of the Lord. At the time he didn't know it was the Lord who called, but thought it was Eli. Imagine not knowing the Lord and still answering the call. As Christian stewards, we know the Lord calls us to share our gifts with him and with one another, but do we answer his call as readily as Samuel

PRAYER DURING CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother Mary,
We, your children of every nation,
Turn to you in this pandemic.
Our troubles are numerous; our fears are great.
Grant that we might deposit them at your feet,
Take refuge in your Immaculate Heart,
And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.
You are our Mother.
Pray for us to your Son.
Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. ROCCO

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us,
We beseech thee, from the Scourges of God; through thy Intercession, preserve our Bodies from contagious
Diseases, and our souls from
The contagion of sin.
Obtain for us salubrious air;
But, above all, purity of heart.
Assist us to make good use of health, to bear sufferings with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
St. Rocco, pray for us—3 times

IN YOUR CHARITY, please pray for repose of, DAVID NERONE, age 66, CHARLES E. BROWN, age 82, ROBERT BOLAN, age 88, ILONA W. GERSONA, age 82, JOSEPH D'ERAMO, age 93, JOANNE M. REGISTRATION: Members of the parish should be formally registered. If you are not receiving Our Lady of Mt. Carmel envelopes, please call the rectory Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.—2:00 p.m. For a change of address or telephone number, please call the rectory at 330-743-4144.

MASKS

Wear your mask inside and throughout Mass, not just to walk through the doors.

Help provide a sense of security and peace for others while we celebrate as a parish community.

Thank you for your cooperation in keeping everyone feeling welcome and safe.

Baptisms

Expecting or adopting a child?

Now is the time to call and schedule their Baptism.

The most asked question is, "Who can be a Godparent?"

*Godparents need to be a fully Initiated member that is active and in good standing with the Catholic Church. Meaning he or she has been Baptized, Confirmed and received the Eucharist in the Catholic Church.

*Must have 2 Godparents or 1 Godparent and 1 Christian Witness. A Christian Witness must be Baptized in a Christian Faith and active in their faith.

Preparing for Reconciliation

Continue to pray for our young parishioners who have been preparing to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. Let them continue to grow in greater understanding of the meaning of unconditional love, mercy and forgiveness for others and self.

1 Parent & Child will meet: Saturday, January 30, 2021 from 2pm—3:30pm in the piano classroom. Complete chapters 1 – 6 and bring your book. Keep working on your prayers.

Preparing for Confirmation

Please continue to pray for the 28 youth of our parish, who are preparing for their final Initiation into the Catholic Faith through the Sacrament of Confirmation. May they continue to grow in a greater understanding of the Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit. Pray for their Sponsors, who have been given the opportunity to walk with their Candidate/s and share their own journey of faith and wisdom. Together may they grow in a deeper love and understanding of being Catholic.

Preparing to be Fully Initiated into the Catholic Church

Pray for those who are preparing to become fully Initiated into the Catholic Church through Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation this Easter Season.

Questions or interested, please call or email Therese at the Religious Education Office.

Like Jesus did to Simon Peter, he says to each of us: "What are you looking for?" When you pray, and when you look at a crucifix, or when you see a picture of Jesus, what exactly are you looking for?

Jesus says: "Come and see!" Come and see what? His love? His healing power? His supernatural ability to answer our prayers? Whatever we're looking for, the reason we're seeking it is because we don't yet have it.

Jesus is the fulfillment of every promise by God the Father. Jesus is the fullness of love, the provider of mercy, the divine healer, the perfect mediator of all our prayers and concerns, and everything else we truly need. So, why does it feel like something is still missing? Why do our lives feel incomplete? Why do our prayers seem unanswered?

Yet with all of this, Peter did not really find all that he was looking for (remember how easily he felt afraid or uncertain) until he was on the giving end of it. He didn't discover the fullness of Jesus until Jesus was no longer present in the flesh and Peter accepted the call to continue Christ's earthly ministry.

The same is true for us who have never seen Jesus' actual eyes or heard his actual voice. We find what we're seeking when we give it to others. Why? Because then we discover that we really had it all along! This is the miracle of "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What do you need from Jesus that he doesn't seem to be providing yet? At the core, what is it you're really seeking?
2. How can you find it by doing the will of God? Figure out something to do, then do it and see what happens.
3. Describe a time when you gave away what you thought you did not have (money? time? patience? hope? love?) How were you doing the will of God?
4. What happened to your own needs afterward?

The answer is revealed in what happened after Peter began to follow Jesus. We read about it in Samuel's response to God's invitation. We proclaim it in the Responsorial: "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

Peter was privileged to witness first-hand the wondrous miracles of Jesus. He personally experienced God's love through the gentle eyes of Jesus, the tone of kindness in his voice, and the forgiveness that was visible in his smile.
