

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets.
Then he called them.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

This years theme-ABIDE IN MY LOVE AND YOU SHALL BEAR MUCH FRUIT (John 15: 5-9) calls us to pray and to work for reconciliation and unity in the church, with our human family, and with all of creation. Drawing on the Gospel image of vine and branches, it invites us to nourish unity with God and with one another through contemplative silence, prayer, and common action. Grafted into Christ the vine as many diverse branches, may we bear rich fruit and create new ways of living, with respect for and communion with all of creation.

Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration
 Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @330-372-5141 or Jean Talley @330-758-3335.

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

HUMAN FRATERNITY

May the Lord give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions, praying for one another, open to all.

Ursuline High School To Give Placement and Scholarship Test on February 25, 2021

Ursuline High School will administer its placement and scholarship test on Thursday, February 25th from 3:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. All students enrolled in a Catholic school have taken the placement test at their respective elementary school. Schools will forward the results to Ursuline High School. There is no charge for the test. Students should bring two #2 pencils, a calculator and a bottle of water. Students will arrive at the 10 North door (main entrance on Bryson St.) and then report to the main office. To register for the test, call the school office at 330-0744-4563. Placement in honors courses is based upon successful completion of this entrance exam. The awarding of certain academic scholarships is based on this test as well.

URGENT NEED!

Make a Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in asking our Lord to deliver us from COVID-19. Rosary and Missalettes are in the vestibule for you to keep; or bring your own Bible or Prayer Book. Call the rectory –330-743-4144, Monday-Friday during office hours, 8:30-3:00 p.m. to receive the Code Number to enter the Basilica. Keep code CONFIDENTIAL. Sign in and sign out. Sanitize before & after your pew space with the materials near the Holy Water Fount. Every Holy Hour will help this sick world. Thank you and with love and prayers.

The Extraordinary Sacrificial Offering

To date we have received 310 extraordinary envelope offerings from members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel to help with the anticipated $98,150 deficit of income due to lack of fundraisers on account of Covid 19. The offerings to date are in the amount of $77,470.00 dollars. The offering is a tremendous help for our stewardship in this time of need. If you are able to participate, please do so at your earliest convenience. It will be very helpful. God's choicest Blessings — Msgr. Cariglio - RECTOR

1 Cor 7:29-31; Mk 1:14-20

The Ninevites heard the preaching of Jonah and repented of their evil ways, thus experiencing the Lord's compassion. Do we repent when we hear the preaching of Jesus? Do we invest our lives in the world rather than in God's kingdom?

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul has some sobering words for us including that "the world in its present form is passing away." This should not be of any concern to the Christian steward, for the Christian steward is not concerned with owning worldly possessions. When we begin to recognize that all good things belong to the Lord, not only do we become more grateful for what we have, but we also become more willing to share what we have with others.

"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Craig's Corner
A note from our Music Director

This weekend, the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is referred to as the Sunday of the Word of God. As we continue through the first month of the new year and begin our weeks of ordered time, the Church brings attention to Christ as the incarnate Word made flesh, and opens up the Scriptures to us. We hear this vividly through our readings today. In the first reading, the Word of God is delivered to Jonah and the people of Nineveh who are called to turn from their evil ways and to focus on God. In the Gospel, by the Sea of Galilee, more disciples are chosen to follow the Word and follow Christ himself in human form so they can learn from Him and, eventually to spread the Word and build up the beginning of the Church after the Resurrection and Ascension.

Our music this weekend also paints the scenery where the disciples first heard the call of Christ in this weekend's Gospel: in nature alongside the water. Often times, especially in winter, the calmness and stillness of the outside world is so peaceful. To be nurtured by the Word of God, we often need a quiet place to feel His presence and mute out the rest of the world. Christ calls his first disciples, who are fishermen, out of the water to follow Him.

This weekend's prelude is a pastorale, which is a musical piece which often represents some type of outdoor scene, or that which revolves around Nature. Our entrance hymn sets the stage for the Gospel reading directly stating the account of calling fishermen to become disciples of Christ. But the text takes it one step farther and puts us also in the account. Christ is also asking US to follow Him. He does not need money nor weapons for fighting, but only asking that we might follow. The offertory anthem also blends these themes together, stating the calling of the disciples by the Sea of Galilee but also hearing the voice of God through the small voice of calm, not that of an earthquake or fire. Answering God's call is the prayer of the psalmist we sing at communion, and we have to ask ourselves if we truly live by these words we sing, "Here I am, O God, I come to do your will."

Jesus' words, "repent and believe in the Gospel" should hit us in a special way as we celebrate this Sunday of the Word of God. It is my hope that our music this weekend, and every weekend, lifts you up to the power and glory of God so that we can pray as does our responsorial psalmist, "guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior." May we be guided by the Word of God today and every day as we continue our Christian journey.

PRAYER DURING CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother Mary,
We, your children of every nation,
Turn to you in this pandemic.
Our troubles are numerous; our fears are great.
Grant that we might deposit them at your feet,
Take refuge in your Immaculate Heart,
And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.
You are our Mother.
Pray for us to your Son.
Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. ROCCO

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us,
We beseech thee, from the Scourges of God; through thy Intercession, preserve our Bodies from contagious
Diseases, and our souls from
The contagion of sin.
Obtain for us salubrious air;
But, above all, purity of heart.
Assist us to make good use of health, to bear sufferings with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
St. Rocco, pray for us—3 times

CHURCH OVERSEAS COMBINED COLLECTION

This weekend the Diocese of Youngstown is holding the Church Overseas Combined Collection for ministries of the Church around the globe. These ministries of the Catholic Relief Services (CRS), Holy Father/Peter's Pence, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and the Church in Latin America assist the Church in serving people who are hungry, refugees, victims of natural disasters, and development projects. Please give generously to this collection which combines four collections in one.

Our 'Souper Bowl of Awareness Collection'

February 6th & 7th

Following all weekend Masses at

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica ~
St. Anthony of Padua Parish

The National event helps bring awareness of those who may not have the food to eat.

All soups and monetary donations collected will be donated to our local St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry.

Unfortunately, due to social distancing the youth will not be able to hold the 'Team' Soup Pots. Look for the table where you may place your soup and/or monetary donations in the team containers!

Last year we collected $464.22 and 106 cans of soup! Thank you!

Preparing for Reconciliation

Continue to pray for our young parishioners who have been preparing to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. Let them continue to grow in greater understanding of the meaning of unconditional love, mercy and forgiveness for others and self.

1 Parent & Child will meet: Saturday, January 30, 2021 from 2pm—3:30pm in the piano classroom. Complete chapters 1 – 6 and bring your book. Keep working on your prayers.

Baptisms

Expecting or adopting a child?
Now is the time to call and schedule their Baptism.

The most asked question is, "Who can be a Godparent?"

*Godparents need to be a fully Initiated member that is active and in good standing with the Catholic Church. Meaning he or she has been Baptized, Confirmed and received the Eucharist in the Catholic Church.

*Must have 2 Godparents or 1 Godparent and 1 Christian Witness. A Christian Witness must be Baptized in a Christian Faith and active in their faith.

Preparing for Confirmation

Please continue to pray for the 28 youth of our parish, who are preparing for their final Initiation into the Catholic Faith through the Sacrament of Confirmation. May they continue to grow in a greater understanding of the Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit.

Pray for their Sponsors, who have been given the opportunity to walk with their Candidate/s and share their own journey of faith and wisdom. Together may they grow in a deeper love and understanding of being Catholic.

Preparing to be Fully Initiated into the Catholic Church

Pray for those who are preparing to become fully Initiated into the Catholic Church through Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation this Easter Season.**

Today's Gospel reading is a call to surrender ourselves fully to God. "Now is the time of fulfillment" – not just 2000 years ago, not at the Second Coming of Christ, but right now in your life when and where you need Jesus the most.

"The kingdom of God is at hand" – what you need from the Lord is right here, at hand, ready for you.

"Repent, and believe in the gospel" means "Come follow Me and learn from Me to become like Me." For the first disciples, it meant dropping whatever they were doing to spend so much time with Jesus that their whole lives were forever affected.

And this is what it means for you and for me: We have to put aside our own agendas and overly busy schedules to spend more time following Jesus wherever he leads us.

In the modern world, we have become more dependent on our technological devices than on Jesus. Many of us cannot even go on vacation without remaining accessible to their employers via the cell phone. Somehow, we need to find a way to take a stand against this.

It's one of the social justice teachings of the Church: We are actually called by God to rebel against working on Sundays and other days of rest. Why? Because we need to spend that time with Jesus quietly being restored and re-energized.

Unfortunately, Jesus doesn't walk through the door and circle dates on our calendar and write "Rest with Jesus" on it so that we can plan ahead. We have to follow his lead at a moment's notice – every moment. To experience the kingdom of God on the earthly side of heaven, we have to be willing to drop everything to follow Jesus into unfamiliar places at unexpected times. We have to learn to follow his lead even in situations where his way is the surprising way.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What's on your to-do list? What keeps you busy? What are your goals for the future? What are you dreaming of?
2. If Jesus has a different plan for your day or for your life, how easily could you switch over to new ideas and plans?
3. What are some of the nets you've abandoned in the past in order to follow Jesus? How difficult was that to do?
4. Are you happy about it now? Why? How was this an experience of the kingdom of God on earth?
