Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

This years theme-ABIDE IN MY LOVE AND YOU SHALL BEAR MUCH FRUIT (John 15: 5-9) calls us to pray and to work for reconciliation and unity in the church, with our human family, and with all of creation. Drawing on the Gospel image of vine and branches, it invites us to nourish unity with God and with one another through contemplative silence, prayer, and common action. Grafted into Christ the vine as many diverse branches, may we bear rich fruit and create new ways of living, with respect for and communion with all of creation.

Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a "virus" that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the "virus of sin" attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him." It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @330-372-5141 or Jean Talley @330-758-3335.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

Today's Gospel passage is about God revealing his Son to the people in Capernaum. Christian stewards must recognize this act as God Sharing a gift with us. Though God could have acted in many other ways, he chose to send Jesus from heaven to earth to be with us—and not only to be with us, but to die for us! God gave us the ultimate gift, and asks us to share our own gifts with others in return.

Intercession for Vocations:

That all those discerning or pursuing a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life will find encouragement through our prayers and sacrifices on their behalf,
We pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

Craig's Corner
A note from our Music Director

In Saint Paul's letter to the Philippians, he states that "at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord." This text which has become part of what is known of as the Philippians Canticle, is a good introduction to why I chose the hymns "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" and "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All" this weekend.

These hymns speak to the importance of the name of Christ and how He should be the focus and center of our lives. His name is powerful and deserves the utmost praise and reverence. Mark tells us in this weekend's Gospel passage that the people were astonished at what was happening and that He is a "teaching with authority" that even the unclean spirits obey. If the unclean spirits obey the name of Christ, the significance of Paul's canticle that all should bend their knees at the name of Christ should resonate with all of us. Thus as we sing our hymns this weekend in honor of the name of Christ, we are reminded of how significant that name is and we need to look to Him to drive out the demons which prevent us from seeing Him in our lives.

To that end, the second reading has a very similar tone to what we heard in the second reading last weekend when we heard the words, "the world in its present form is passing away." Likewise, this weekend, in his letter to the Corinthians, Paul again echoes these words by stating we should be free of worldly anxieties. This links the first reading and Gospel together. If we are free from worldly anxiety (demons), we can thus focus our attention on the name of Christ. Our offertory solo "O Breathe on me, O Breath of God" directly echoes this theme in the verse which states "O breathe on me, O Breath of God, fill me with life anew, that I may love the things you love, and do what you would do."

As we go forward this week, our theme from this weekend honoring the name of Jesus, crowning Him as Lord of all, we realize the power His name holds. As we have heard the previous two Sundays, it is Christ's voice who calls us to follow Him in our Christian journey. As our psalmist states this weekend, if we want to truly live our Christian call of discipleship, we must bow at the name of Jesus and not harden our hearts when we hear His voice.

IF TODAY YOU HEAR HIS VOICE. HARDEN NOT YOUR HEART.

We, your children of every nation,
Turn to you in this pandemic.

Our troubles are numerous; our fears are great.

And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.

*Godparents need to be a fully Initiated member that is active and in good standing with the Catholic Church. Meaning he or she has been Baptized, Confirmed and received the Eucharist in the Catholic Church.

*Must have 2 Godparents or 1 Godparent and 1 Christian Witness.

A Christian Witness must be Baptized in a Christian Faith and active in their faith.

This Sunday's Gospel reading illustrates the authority of Jesus. If we truly accept and understand his authority over our lives, we can rejoice in the Lord even when life hands us hardships.

Why? Because we know that Christ's authority is supreme, which means that everything we've placed under his authority will produce good fruits. Even bad situations will be transformed into blessings. Tragedies will be changed into triumphs. Sorrows will be transfigured into joy. Frustrations will lay the groundwork for new growth, new knowledge, and a greater ability to minister to others.

However, if we reject Christ's authority by acting as if we're the ones in charge, deciding for ourselves how to end a problem or how and when to escape from a hardship, our problems will only get worse. This is called "moral relativism." Pope Francis wrote in his Apostolic Exhortation on the Gospel of Joy (Evangelii Gaudium, paragraph 64) that this leads to a feeling of disorientation instead of joy.

The path to joy has been forged by the footsteps of Jesus. To benefit from his authority over evil and over human sufferings, we have to follow his example and obey his teachings. This means choosing to trust him, realizing that his ways are the best ways even when they're unpleasant ways. It means that we're willing to reach resurrection glory by going through the cross with Jesus.

There are no successful shortcuts to the triumphant victory that awaits us. There is no easy way to overcome evil. If this were not true, Jesus wouldn't have needed to die on a cross.

The good news – the reason why we can rejoice – is that the most loving, most powerful, most wise One in the universe is using his supreme authority on our behalf. The question is: Will we submit to it?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what ways are you still rejecting Christ's authority by trying to do things your own way? Which Church teachings have you been rejecting because you've decided to live by your own rules?
2. Are you willing to ask the Holy Spirit to change your mind on these matters and teach you the value of Christ's ways?
3. In what ways do Christians often reject Christ's authority in favor of defining their own rules? Why?
4. What are the apparent risks to living completely under Christ's strict authority?
5. How can we replace these risks with a sense of safety?
