Santa Pasqua 2021

“Solo il Cristo risorto puo portarci su fino all’unicone con Dio, fino dove le nostre forze non possono arrivare. Egli prende davvero la pecora smarrita sulle sue spalle e la porta a casa. Aggappati al suo Corpo noi viviamo, e in communion con il suo Corpo giungiamo fino al cuore di Dio. E solo cosi e vinta la morte, siamo liberi e la nostra vita e speranza”.(Benedetto XVI)

Apostolate of Perpetual Adoration
Being in the SONLIGHT at Eucharistic Adoration helps reveal to us our sins!

Eucharistic Adoration helps you to examine your conscience. The longer you remain in the presence of God, the more you will reflect upon your failings--your sins. Sin is a “virus” that corrodes and damages your soul. Without the proper medicine, the “virus of sin” attacks you and cripples you spiritually.

Remember, being in the SONLIGHT, it is Jesus himself who will make your sins more recognizable. Eucharistic Adoration is a beautiful precursor to confession. St. Clare of Assisi said, “Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him.” It will always prepare you for the worthy reception of the healing Sacrament of Confession. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @ 330-372-5141. Call to schedule an hour of absorbing true SONLIGHT Maria Panozzo @330-372-5141 or Jean Talley @330-758-3335.

DAILY MORNING OFFERING PRAYER

Jesus, though the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS:

We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A note from our Music Director

“Let us sing to the Lord, he has covered himself in glory.”

These words, taken from one of the Easter Vigil Responsorial Psalms, sets our tone at Mass for the next 50 days. We as a congregation get to sing out in joy to our Risen Lord. Our Lenten journey of penance and preparation for Easter has culminated in a festival of singing, trumpets and exultant praise to our Risen Lord. For the past six weeks, the Gloria and alleluia have been absent from Mass. Their return signals this joy of the Church, for Christ indeed has risen: alleluia, alleluia!

As music director, I'd like to thank our cantors and wonderful abbreviated choir from Mt. Carmel for their time, talent and dedication to making the celebrations of Holy Week and Easter all the more magnificent, especially this year where we were actually able to be celebrate in person. Thanks to Scott Cross, Susan Izzo, Christine Langer, Nicholas Mattiusi, and Dena Tufaro for their adherence to all the health norms while still being able to rehearse and add to the splendor of the celebrations of the past week.

I especially want to thank our rector and pastor, Msgr Cariglio and Phillip Pillin our master of ceremonies and director of liturgy for working together with myself in the careful planning of our Holy Week events this week. As I mentioned last weekend, we can become so desensitized to so many aspects of our faith that sometimes we need to relight our fire. This year is a perfect opportunity for that and to celebrate the Easter mysteries with a renewed faith. While still not “normal” it was a wonderful week to be able to celebrate in person with our parish family. It is my hope that our music and worship this week has allowed our parish family to renew within themselves their commitment to our Catholic faith with its rich history.

May the next 50 days be a continuation of the joy we celebrate this Easter Day. Buona Pasqua, 2021!

Celebrate! Today is the anniversary of the Great Surprise, and just as the first disciples were surprised to find the tomb empty, so too does God have some resurrection surprises in mind for you!

In the Easter Gospel reading from John 20:1-9, there's a lot of scurrying around and excitement and reporting some amazing news that no one yet understands. Even though Jesus had given them advance notice that he would rise again after being put to death, God's plans took them by surprise. They did not expect a resurrection. They didn't understand that it was a necessary part of the Messiah's mission.

God's plans often take us by surprise. In so many situations of our lives, we don't understand that hard times are going to produce wonderful victories. We fail to realize that the empty tombs in our lives (the losses we grieve) are beginnings of important new growth. We cannot imagine how Jesus is going to redeem bad times into great blessings.

We suffer through the hardships, just trying to cope, waiting for an opportunity to finally walk away from our crosses. Meanwhile, Jesus wants to give us an Easter morning because of the crosses. How can we recognize the glory of God when we're depressed? How can we realize our resurrections when we're cursing our crosses? It's impossible!

To be the Easter people that we're supposed to be, we have to learn how to see the hope of resurrection in the pain of the cross. We have to trust that Jesus is always there, working a plan to redeem bad into good. We have to allow ourselves to be surprised by God.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What trials are you still enduring? What cross are you still carrying? Are you still being nailed for something you did not do? Which of your desires or dreams are dying?
2. Ask the Father to use your sufferings for the glory of his kingdom. What new life is this creating for you?
3. What are some of the ways in which God has surprised you?
4. How is this an experience of resurrection?
